Hello Lennart,

Yes, i found her enrollment card. Eva was a student at TSD from 1888 to 1900. She was born on 8/28/1880. The cause of her deafness was congenital. Her father's name was C. B. Dorchester. He was a banker. No information about her mother.. the only thing mentioned about her was she was born in Kentucky. Her father was born in Missouri. It also mentioned that Eva married Carlson on Oct. 4, 1911.

Hope these help.

Have a good day.

Hi,

I am writing a Wikipedia article on the artist Edward William Carlson (1883 - July 26, 1932). Edward married Eva Dorchester on October 4, 1911. Previously, around 1901, Eva attended the Texas School for the Deaf in Travis. I was wondering if the school still has records for that time, and would be able to provide more information on Eva that I can add to the Wikipedia article.

Kind regards,

Good morning,

The Texas School for the Deaf has a heritage center. It is open 10:00 - 2:00 on M-W-F's. For the information you are looking for you could email the center. The email is heritage.center@tsd.state.tx.us. Those who work there may can answer your questions.

Good luck with your article.
