Location of the Next Convention, Discussion.

Mr. J. H. McFarlane, President of the Omaha Silentium, Association, writes in part as follows:

I assure you that our committee is working on the square, and all we expect is a square deal. If any other city goes us one better, we have too much of the genuine western spirit of the sportsman to sulk about it. No, we are loyal to the N. A. D., first and last, and will work for it for all we are worth no matter who gets the convention. But it is for the good of the N. A. D. as a whole that all cities in the race be treated with absolute impartiality.

As President of the Omaha Silentium, I shall try to do what I can to inspire interest in the National Association. I am a member myself, and when I see a favorable opportunity, I mean to try to get others to join. I am fully in sympathy with the campaign for an enlarged N. A. D. We ought to have an addition of several thousands before the next Convention.

J. H. MCFARLANE.

MINNESOTA ASSOCIATION FAVORS OMAHA.

A letter from the Secretary of the Minnesota Association of the Deaf, under the date of October 19th, 1910, was received, of which the substance is as follows:

Acting upon instructions received from the Executive Committee of the Minnesota Association of the Deaf, I write to request you as president of the N. A. D. to use your influence with your Executive Committee in favor of Omaha as the next meeting place of the National Association.

The reason for this request is primarily to defeat the Federation plan. I presume you are aware that our State Association is unalterably opposed to that plan and we are going to fight it for all we are worth.

We believe that if the next meeting be held in Omaha (or some other southwestern or middle western place, will be better than if the convention is held in Atlanta for example, because at the former place there would be a representative gathering than at the latter.

P. N. PETERSON,

MR. HUNT IS FOR OMAHA.

Mr. L. M. Hunt, of Sioux Falls, S. D. recently visited Omaha, and while there he discussed the 1913 convention, and as a result of his impression he writes: "I am now in favor of Omaha as against any other place suggested."

MR. FRANK A. JOHNSON WILL BE SATISFIED.

Mr. Frank A. Johnson, of Chicago, writes that he will be satisfied with the selection made by the Executive Committee. Mr. Johnson, as a member of the Bureau of Publicity is quietly doing some good work for the Association. As a worker in behalf of the moving picture fund Mr. Johnson proved himself one of the most energetic men in the association. Let us have more men like Drake and Johnson, who are workers, not kickers, and the N. A. D. will prosper.

MICHIGAN ASSOCIATION ENDORSES KALAMAZOO.

FLINT, MICH., May 28, 1911.

Mr. OLOF HANSON, Pres.
DEAR SIR: Permit us to speak in behalf of Kalamazoo for the meeting of the next convention.

The South had the convention in 1904, at St. Louis, the east in 1907 at Norfolk, the west in 1910 at Colorado Springs. It is certainly now the turn of the north and center.

Kalamazoo is not as large or as well known as Omaha, Atlanta, or Cleveland; but it is larger than either Norfolk or Colorado Springs. It has achieved great success and fame as a convention city, which is very much to the point.

Kalamazoo is a live, energetic town of 40,000 population, eager for conventions, and notably successful in handling them. What is more it has an unusually able and enterprising deaf population, who can be relied on to do everything possible for the proper entertainment of the convention. Should the Executive Committee decide on Kalamazoo it can rest assured that it has made no mistake.

Respectfully,
A. J. EICKHOFF,
O. C. STEVENS,
F. M. KAUFMAN,
Ex. Com. Mich. Ass'n. Deaf.

The above letter is slightly abridged.

MR. SPRAR WANTS IT IN MINNEAPOLIS.

MR. OLOF HANSON,
Chairman Ex. Com. N. A. D.

I beg to offer the following in favor of Minneapolis for the 1913 convention of the N. A. D.

The invitation is extended by the Minneapolis Association of the Deaf. This Association has had a continuous existence for over 30 years. It is now incorporated, has money in the treasury and every member stands ready to go to work and work hard to promote the success of the convention if it is held in our city.

Minneapolis is in every way an ideal city for holding the convention. Its hotel accommodation is ample. It is surrounded by numerous beautiful resorts and places of amusement. Lake Minnetonka, which will be remembered by those who attended the St. Paul Convention, is now talked of for the summer residence of President Taft. This beautiful lake is out half an hour's ride from the city.

The location of Minneapolis is such as to make it convenient for delegates to attend from all parts of the country, thus assuring what we so much desire—a large and representative gathering.

Minneapolis is not in any way entangled in N. A. D. discussions and no ill-feeling has been aroused on that account. Every delegate could come to the convention at Minneapolis with assurances that he or she would be heartily welcomed, and the one and only aim of the deaf people of Minneapolis would be to make our guests feel at home—to entertain them and make their stay in our city a pleasure.

I must add, however, that we positively decline to guarantee to raise any set sum for the entertainment of the delegates. If the convention comes to Minneapolis, the delegates will be entertained and entertained right. That is as far as we can go, and our reputation is back of the promise.

Respectfully,
A. R. SPRAR.

ATLANTA WANTS TO COME BACK.

The Atlanta deaf have changed their minds, and now want to be considered in the race again for the convention. Their claims will be presented in the next issue.

The discussion is nearly completed. One or two more issues will complete the material on hand, then it will be in order to make motions for one city or another.

OLOF HANSON,
Chairman Ex. Com.

U. S. NAVY YARD AT BREMERTON EMPLOYS THE DEAF.

Hugo A. Holcomb has secured employment at the U. S. Navy Yard at Bremerton, Wash. A year and a half ago he was in line for employment at the same place, but when he applied for his position, he was refused and for no other reason than that he was deaf. At that time, as Director of the Bureau of Publicity of the N. A. D., I had an extended and somewhat caustic correspondence with the Commandant of the Yard, but was unable to secure any satisfaction. Apparently, however, the correspondence was not entirely wasted. Mr. Holcomb applied again, was placed on the waiting list, and when his turn came he was called, accepted, and is now employed at the yard. OLOF HANSON.

PRIZE WINNERS.

State Treasurers' Prize, a trio of Prize White Leghorns, donated by Mr. George W. Veditz, and to be shipped express paid by him to the winner "returning the largest pro rata to the Fund on the basis of the number of pupils in the school or schools of each State, as given in the tabular statement in the January (1910) Annals," will probably go to Miss Yetta Baggerman, of Sulphur, Oklahoma, unless Mr. Veditz figures out I am in error.

Collectors' Prizes, beautiful gold jeweled watches, one to each State, for the best returns for amounts over "fifty dollars," free trip prize-winners excepted, have been won by Miss Mabel Grady, St. John, North Dakota.

Miss Blanche Benoit, Boston, Mass.
Mr. Lee W. Palmer, Porterville, Cal.
Mr. Guilbert Braddock, Ouray, Col.

Others who came within an ace of winning and deserve special mention are Mr. Arthur Rink, Beardstown, Ill., and Mr. Frank Snyder, Pendleton, Ore. There are others whose names have not been sent in. The watches will be sent off this week.

There are still outstanding several collections which may augment the grand total by $50 to $150.

Miss Baggerman in her report says: "I feel sure you will see to it that none of this money is given to the Endowment Fund of the National Association of the Deaf. It was collected with the understanding that it was to be used for Moving Pictures, and it would be wrong to use the money for any other purpose." Others wrote in the same tenor.

Mr. Walter Thurston, of Blue Hill, Kan., sent one dollar in appreciation of the "splendid entertainment furnished by the National Association of the Deaf, at Colorado Springs." This amount has been turned over to the Endowment Fund with this understanding.

Canada, according to Mrs. G. E. M. Nelson, sent $5. collected from the deaf of Winnipeg, Manitoba, by Mrs. J. Reginald Cook. It would seem that interest in the films is not confined to our country only. Japan has made a request to exhibit the films before the deaf pupils of her school. Should this be done it may bring about the adoption of the American system of signs in Japan, and perhaps elsewhere, and the "educational value" of the films would therefore be greater than we ever dreamed of. In this country, with the right kind of films and proper management, the film ought to educate the hearing public and bring about a reaction in favor of the Combined System of instruction of the deaf.

Father F. A. Moeller, of Chicago, writes: "I believe I was the first one to have the Moving Pictures of the Sign Language taken—about four or more years ago. At the request of the Chicago Tribune, two of the children of the Ephpheta School for the Deaf signed before the camera 'The Holy City' and 'Our Father.' It would be well if you could add those films to your collection. When I get a little more time, I will call on the manager of the Selig Company and find out whether the films can be obtained." I assured the Reverend Father the films would be welcomed and appreciated. The Ephpheta Mission, it will be noticed, is upon our Roll of Honor.

In another report "respectfully submitted" to the President about a month ago, I explained much about the delays and obstacles in our path, and begged the deaf public to be patient with me. As the JOURNAL space is limited, I regret it cannot be reproduced here in full.

In conclusion, I want to thank you one and all for your kind cooperation in this undertaking and for your patience with me.

BROOKLYN

THE GUILD CELEBRATES GALLAUDET'S ANNIVERSARY.

Ye scribe begs to add a few words to the short account in your paper relating to the Gallaudet Celebration.

The affair was under the management of Chairman H. L. Juhring, and was a success both socially and financially.

A stranger in our midst had he been present, might have remarked that it was the elite of Brooklyn that were paying tribute to the memory of the late Rev. Thomas Gallaudet, D. D., on account of their neat appearance and the fine addresses delivered.

In reality, it was worth coming from a distance to take part in the festivities of the evening, to see prominent deaf-mutes make short addresses on the life and work of Rev. Dr. Gallaudet.

Mrs. M. A. Syle, of Philadelphia, whose presence was greeted by all present, was invited to speak. She told of the work of Dr. Gallaudet and her husband, the late H. W. Syle, in Philadelphia. She made a very favorable impression, and at the conclusion was heartily applauded.

It would fill a whole page of the JOURNAL to give even a brief summary of all the speeches by the following named gentlemen: Rev. Dr. John Chamberlain, Rev. J. H. Keiser, Dr. Thomas F. Fox, Mr. Chester Q. Mann, William W. Thomas, Edwin A. Hodgson, Francis W. Nubser, Samuel Frankheim, Archie J. McLaren, William G. Gilbert and others.

Editor Hodgson cut a long story short by saying that Rev. Dr. Gallaudet was a great and good man.

Mr. Chester Q. Mann's sign-making was so emotional and simple that any child could easily understand him.

Mr. Isaac Goldberg, a prominent deaf-mute of Brooklyn, threw a five dollar bill into the cash box, and when he was asked for what purpose, he said any good purpose. It was decided to set the sum aside for the Parish Building Fund.

Among those present were: Rev. Dr. and Mrs. John Chamberlain, and her aunt, Rev. Dr. S. S. Roche, Rector of St. Mark's Church, Rev. John H. Keiser, Dr. Thomas F. Fox, Messrs. E. A. Hodgson, F. W. Nubser, Chester Q. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Goldberg, Mrs. Lux, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Juhring, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gilbert, Mrs. H. W. Syle, of Philadelphia, Mr. John H. Ziegler, of Philadelphia, Mr. William Foorman, of Philadelphia, Mr. Archie J. McLaren, Miss E. Coligan, Mr. John Wilkinson, Mrs. M. J. Evans, Mr. Anthony Reiff, Miss Nellie Lorigan, Mrs. W. W. Thomas, of Yonkers, Mrs. M. Rodrigo, Mrs. B. Lockwood, Mrs. Mary Neiser, Miss A. Anderson, Mr. Robert Anderson, Mr. Erich Berg, Mr. John Mason, Mr. John Enfield, Mr. O. S. Lewis, Miss Eckerson, Miss M. G. Williams, Miss J. Hicks, Mr. C. E. Vernon, Mr. Henry Hester, Mr. Roy Townsend, and many others.

Chairman Juhring advised all the deaf to attend the coming Picnic of the Guild, which is in aid of the Parish Fund. He is perfecting a most attractive program for the outing, and feels sure that every one will have a pleasant time.

On June 8th the Society held a brief business meeting. Tickets for the Guild's Picnic are out and selling like "hot cakes."

PITTSBURGH.

At the appointed hour, a merry crowd at Western Ave., in Aspinwall, where they were getting ready to march toward Mr. J. M. Rolshouse's house with a purpose to "storm his castle" on his 40th birthday. Miss J. B. Jackson was the captain of the crowd. Before this Mrs. Rolshouse had a few friends to take supper with her in his honor. Suddenly Miss Jackson complained of being sick and went in the room to take a nap. Mr. C. Fritzgess had to go down in the cellar for Mrs. Rolshouse. Mrs. C. Fritzgess wanted to take a walk. Mrs. Rolshouse and Mrs. Chestnut were the persons left to entertain John. However Mr. Rolshouse "smelled something" and wanted to know what had become of the guests who made excuses. He went in the hall and was taken by surprise to see the crowd in the parlor. Hand-shakings and congratulations followed. Presents were then showered upon him, who had to make a neat speech thanking the crowd for this event.

Messrs. Allabough, Bardes and Teegarden explained some experiences of John during his school life at the Western Pa. Inst. for the Deaf, to the amusement of the crowd, but to the blushes of John (?) After this all went socially until late in the night, when they were in a hurry for the last street car. Mrs. Rolshouse served very dainty refreshments. Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Durian, Mrs. Chestnut and children; Miss B. Jackson, Miss M. Toomey, Mr. H. B. McMaster, Rev. Mr. Allabough, Mr. F. Leitner, Mr. J. Atcheson, Mr. Royal Durian, Mr. G. M. Teegarden, Mr. F. Farke, and others.

Prof. Percival Hall, of Gallaudet College at Washington, D. C., spent Memorial Day at the Edgewood School for the Deaf, as guest of Dr. Wm. Burt and Mrs. Burt. Dr. Hall had been West visiting schools for the deaf and was on his way home to Washington, D. C., when he stopped off in this city. The annual picnic, May 30th, was in progress on the School grounds where several Gallaudetians attended. By chance the Gallaudetians were delighted to meet Dr. Hall.

Mrs. Hannah Woodside, aged 77, died at the home of her daughter, Miss Sadie Woodside, at Munnhall of this city. At last rest had come to her after she had been an invalid for nearly 30 years. She could not walk around at her home. Despite this misfortune, she always took great interest in the deaf in general as well in the Home for Aged, at Doylestown, Pa.—She always showed her sweet disposition towards her friends who came to visit her, and was very cheerful to the time of her death. Before her marriage she was Miss H. Hollingworth, and was once a pupil at Philadelphia School for the Deaf.

The Deaf Congregation of 8th St. Reformed Presbyterian Church arranged a picnic at River View Park, in North Side, during the Saturday afternoon of June 3d. It was attended by a large crowd, who managed to get in all the fun and sports they could, and the result was that all went home tired but happy after such a good time.

Mrs. A. Woodside, of Wilkinsburg, met with an accident a few days ago when she was struck by a street car. She was going to visit her daughter, Mrs. S. Wilson, when an Ardmore Express car rounded the corner of the street at full speed. She was struck and thrown to the pavement. This accident happened in full view of her daughter, who rushed to her side. The injured woman was taken to her house. It was found that no bones were broken. She was badly bruised and her head was injured. The street-car physician attended her. She is much better now and is well enough to visit many of her friends, who are glad that nothing worse had happened to her.

The Pittsburgh Local Branch, P. S. A. D. Committee, entertained the members and friends with a "social" at their hall last Saturday evening, and a large attendance was present. The Branch is getting up a good program for the outing and picnic on July 4th, at the Edgewood School for the Deaf on their grounds. A special raffle arranged by the "20" Club closed at this meeting, and the lucky winners were Peter Gillyou who got a prize of $2.50, Thomas Sarver, a prize of one dollar, and Dan. Irvin, a prize of fifty cents. The evening was well spent and enjoyed by all, who had ice-cream and cakes served before the social broke up to go home.

Announcement of the death of Mrs. P. Zane of Wheeling, W. Va., was received with sorrow among the deaf people of this city, who had met her and Miss R. Steenrod at the ordination of Mr. B. Allabough one year ago. They express their sincere sympathy with the husband, Mr. W. F. Durian and Mr. F. A. Leitner went there to attend the funeral services. Mr. Leitner assisted Rev. Mr. Stryker and Lay-Reader Mr. J. C. Bremer at the services which were very impressive. Floral tributes were beautiful. This loss was felt keenly by the deaf of Wheeling, but they have reasons to feel thankful that Miss E. Steenrod will take Mrs. Zane's work to look after the interests of the deaf.

Mr. J. Gilmore, of Warren, Ohio, who had been visiting his daughter in Philadelphia, Pa., for the last four months, stopped off in this city for two weeks' stay. He expects to go home this week. Although he is 71 years old, yet he looks hearty and cheerful. Old age does not show anything in him.

Memorial Day was observed with a picnic by the pupils of the Edgewood School for the Deaf, on their grounds. In the morning, a game of baseball was played between the School nine and a nine of graduates of the School, which resulted in a score of 14 runs to 2 against the graduates. The graduates who played on the nine were F. Blackhall, V. Dunn, C. Lebe, R. LeVire, F. Stoner, D. Irvin, J. Price, Royal Durian and F. Holliday, the two latter of Mt. Airy School.

In the afternoon, some good exhibitions were given in foot-races, ball-throwing, three-legged, potato-races and others. Mr. F. Leitner, Mr. F. Holliday, Mr. G. Teegarden, were the judges of the races. In the evening, a party was held in the Boys' Study-Room. They enjoyed the time until bed-time.

Mr. Joe Atcheson spent over Sunday at his old friend, Robert Henderson, at Haulin Station, Pa., and reported a pleasant and enjoyable visit.

A Prize Contest

A prize, which will be sent from China, is offered to the person selling the largest number of copies of the book, "China Through a Car Window," the condition being that the contestant must be deaf; besides the prize, a commission of ten cents is given for each copy sold.

The contest closes October 1st, when a two-cent postal card should be sent immediately to Mrs. A. T. Mills, School for Chinese Deaf-Mutes, Chefoo, China; giving name and address of the contestant with the number of books sold and the amount of money forwarded.

The books are to be had of Mr. F. K. Noyes, Volta Place and 35th Street, Washington, D. C., and are one dollar each. After deducting the commission, and postage and express charges, send the balance of the money either to Mr. Noyes or Mrs. Mills; for the latter use an International Post-Office Money Order.

Here is a chance for the pupils in our schools to earn a little money during the summer vacation and help a good cause at the same time. Let us see who will get the Chinese prize.

Deaf and Dumb Woman Bothered by Mr. Brewster.

For two hours yesterday morning, a pretty deaf and dumb girl, a former client of Eugene V. Brewster, besieged that lawyer in his office, at 26 Court Street, and when he in vain attempted to make her go away, she followed him down to the street floor of the building, holding on to his coat, and while a large crowd collected about them she intimated by frenzied finger-language that he was a thief and a robber. Mr. Brewster's patience finally exhausted, he led her through the rapidly-growing crowd, down to the Adams Street Police Station where a bewildered lieutenant and several patrolmen racked their brains to find a method to make her listen to reason.

Finally in despair they had to send her away, without changing the situation at all, and Mr. Brewster is now wondering what next she will do. The trouble, as Brewster related it to-day, with a mixture of amusement and chagrin, is the aftermath of a rather sensational breach of promise suit which attracted a good deal of attention in the city around 1897. Brewster acted as counsel for Miss Berliner, the deaf-mute, who was suing Jacob Sharlin, also deaf and dumb. The girl was awarded $1,500 damages, which were never paid, as Sharlin had no money, and which now with costs and interest amount to $2,000. Recently Sharlin's wealthy father died and the Berliner girl, who has since married, evidently thought she could collect, though as a matter of fact Sharlin was left nothing from his father's estate.

So Miss Berliner appeared, after many years, before her former attorney, and intimated that he could pay her the money, and collect it afterward or not as he saw fit. Mr. Brewster, through the medium of many notes and what little he knew of the finger alphabet, supplemented by army wig-wagging and the Indian sign language, declared that there was nothing doing, that nothing could be collected either from him or Sharlin, and that he would sell his interest in the case for the proverbial song. Miss Berliner, pained but not baffled, put in writing a most uncomplimentary opinion of the lawyer, and sought another attorney, who after investigation, saw that Mr. Brewster's side of the case was without impeachment. But Miss Berliner could not understand it. So in spite of Mr. Brewster's warnings that he would not see her, she determined to try again.

"She settled down in my office early in the morning," said Mr. Brewster, "and stayed there till noon, buttonholing my office force and my clients, and the elevator boys, and even people in near-by offices with incomprehensible complaints. I went out to see her once, but she was so violent I had to retreat to my office. At lunch time I resolved not to be frightened, and went out. The woman followed me to the elevator, and downstairs on the main floor, caught hold of the lapel of my coat, and I could not shake her. A large and amused crowd began to collect, seeing which, although I had just written her a ten-page note stating in full my position in the matter, she wrote in large letters, 'You are thief, and held it up so all could see.'"

"I couldn't stand that of course, so I made her go with me to the Adams Street Court, which we found was closed. So I turned her over to the lieutenant of the police station, and while he was in the throes of the sign language, with the girl clinging to his sleeve and waving her arms about excitedly, I made a quiet sneak. I hope he succeeded in quieting her, but should like to know what she has in her head for the future."—Brooklyn Eagle, June 11.

GALLAUDET COLLEGE.

The annual exodus began Tuesday afternoon, June 20th, and by Friday youthful exuberance was a negative quantity on Kendall Green. Before the last one had gone workmen were on the scene, and repairs and needed improvements were rushed under way. Mr. Allison, in his capacity of supervisor of buildings, states that the workmen must put in every possible moment in order to finish within the short three months ahead, so extensive is the list of alterations. Among other building operations, the summer will see the erection of a model concrete dairy barn at the farm; chicken houses and a modern garage in place of the old barn near the engine house.

Mr. L. L. Hooper, of New York, succeeds Mr. Fowler as disbursing agent about the middle of July. Mr. Fowler goes from us to enjoy a well-earned rest after twenty years of service with the Institution. Harley Drake, '04, of Piqua, Ohio, has accepted the position as supervisor of the farm and dairy, and will also give instruction in agriculture and dairying to such of the students desiring it. With Mrs. Drake he will remove to Kendall Green in September.

Messrs. Anderson, Hogle and Stegemerten remain on the Green in various capacities during the summer. Mr. Elmer will stay in Washington, though he has not secured employment; and Mr. Hower goes with the Corby Baking Company, while living with Mr. Roy J. Stewart. The entire group forms a congenial bunch, and they should not perish of ennui during the summer. In the Kendall School a certificate of honorable discharge was given to Raymond Webb. The exercises in connection with the School were very brief.

In the College degrees were conferred as follows:— Bachelor of Arts—Misses Eaton, Arizona; Pike, North Carolina; Newman, Illinois. Messrs. Bailey, North Carolina; Nies, New York; Grace, Kansas; Hower, Kansas; Talbert, Missouri; Craven, Oregon; Elmer, California; Morris, Georgia. Bachelor of Science—Mr. Mosey (deceased), Colorado. Bachelor of Letters—Miss Fossan, Minnesota; Mr. Robinson, Illinois.

In the Normal Department the degree of Master of Arts was given Miss Mary Bess Michaels, of Arkansas, and to Mr. Madison Lee, of Kentucky. Certificates were given Miss Maude Peet, of New York, and to Messrs. Stevenson and Bowles, New York.

The Valedictory was delivered by Mr. Leslie Carter, of California, interpreted into signs by Prof. A. B. Fay. Another feature of the closing exercises was the awarding of scholarship prizes among the students. The prizes originate with the present year and were awarded as follows:—

- For general excellence in first year studies—Miss Nelson, California. For best Senior essay—Mr. Elmer, California. For excellence in the philosophical studies of the Senior year—Mr. Talbert, Missouri. For excellence in German—Miss Eaton, Arizona. For best essay submitted in competition on the subject "How Can the Deaf be Best Prepared for Practical Life?"—Miss Dwight, South Carolina.

Atlanta Next.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—From time to time I have seen excellent articles favoring Atlanta, Ga., as the next meeting place for the National Association of the Deaf, none of which mentioned certain points that I believe should favorably impress the "powers that be" in deciding where the Association will next meet.

From an economic point of view I wish to call attention to the fact that east of the Mississippi River, probably farther west, tourist rate tickets can be purchased to Asheville, N. C., at all times of the year. Asheville, the "Land of the Sky," is too well known for me to use space in giving description of its beauty and charm. From Asheville to Atlanta is only a matter of about 200 miles, and excellent car service can be had with Pullman and day coaches.

Many of the more leisurely inclined would then have an excellent opportunity to spend the time between the finals of the Convention and homesickness in the "Land of the Sky" and the many points near Asheville, namely, Lake Towaway, Waynesville and Hot Springs, where the cool mountain breeze invites you with a charm inexplicable.

It is true Atlanta does not have a "Pike's Peak" to "climb or bust." She has parks the like of which are not to be found in many of these Southern cities. For amusements week-end excursions are available to the many sea coast cities and various resorts, as well as the mountains of Western North Carolina and East Tennessee. To sum up the many advantages to be had in Atlanta, Ga., as the next place for the National Association of the Deaf, would require too much valuable space and more ability than I possess.

Mr. Editor, I am not doing this as a member of the N. A. D., but as one who stands ready to boost the Sunny South. CHARLES E. JONES. LATTIMORE, N. C.

LOUISIANA.

June 7, 8, and 9th, were red letter days for the Deaf of the land of Evangeline, when the second reunion of former pupils of the Louisiana State School for the Deaf was held. The attendance, though not so large as three years ago, was a representative one. There were about sixty delegates present, the sons of Adam predominating by a large margin. Undoubtedly old Sol, who was then working overtime with his force slanks, kept many away. From every point of view, however, the re-union was a success. Much good was accomplished, and one and all seemed to have an enjoyable time.

The first day meeting was called to order by President Barham, introducing Rev. J. Gilmer Buskie, of St. James Episcopal Church, who gave the invocation. Following this came the addresses of welcome: For the State—Governor J. Y. Sanders; for the City—Mayor Jules Roux; for the Board—Vice-President Henry Jastrzemski; for the School—Col. S. M. Robertson; for the Local Deaf—H. L. Tracy. The addresses, particularly that of Mayor Roux and Col. Robertson, were well received. Gov. Sanders, and Mr. Jastrzemski were unable to be present and their letters of regret were read.

The responses were delivered as follows:—In behalf of the Association, President Barham; for North Louisiana, J. A. Mashaw; for South Louisiana, Max J. Kestner. There was no further business and meeting adjourned after selections of various committees.

The program for the second day was:—Invocation by A. J. Sullivan; Address of President—G. G. Barham; Discussions of matter brought up by the address—A. J. Sullivan, J. A. Mashaw, M. J. Kestner and H. L. Tracy.

The afternoon session opened with an invocation, by Rev. Father Van Wyck of St. Joseph's Church. Then came discussions on Farming in General. Prof. Duncan Cameron, of Mississippi, was down to read a paper on "Dairying," but was unable to be present. Following this came the election and installation of the new officers. They were as follows:—President, J. A. Mashaw; Vice-President, Henry J. Soland; Second Vice-President, Henry Fox; Secretary, Mrs. H. L. Tracy; Treasurer, G. G. Barham. All were the unanimous choice of the convention. Adjournment then followed, and the delegates proceeded to the Ferry Landing, where they boarded the "Istrouma" for a two-hour boat ride on the Mississippi.

The third day's session was opened with prayer by Rev. O. J. Whildin, after which was miscellaneous discussions: "Federation Plan" led by A. J. Sullivan, and discussed by Messrs. Kestner and Tracy. "Industrial Status of the Deaf" was ably handled by H. L. Tracy, Messrs. Kestner, Goodwin and Sullivan adding their notes to the discussions.

The Committee on Resolutions report was then read. The Superintendency of Col. Robertson was commended, as was the combined system of educating the Deaf. A strong demand was made for better financial support of the School from the State; the Governor was requested to appoint a deaf representative on the Board of Trustees. The National Fraternal Society of the Deaf and the Knights of De L'Espere were recommended as worthy societies. Thanks all round were extended those who helped make the re-union a success. Then came adjournment sine die.

On Thursday night Rev. Whildin entertained the assembly with stereopticon lecture; "the other wise man," which was greatly enjoyed. Owing to the extreme heat the reception and ball were given up, and instead there were impromptu "smokers" on the wide, cool galleries of the Institution, visits to the moving picture shows and many points of interest in town.

The success of the re-union was in a great measure due to the local committee under the chairmanship of H. L. Tracy. The committee worked with might and main and was ably assisted by Col. Robertson. Every one felt indebted to the Superintendent's unfailing courtesy.

New Orleans was voted as the next meeting place of L. A. D., and there's every indication that it's going to be a "hammer."

Those who attended the re-union; G. G. Barham, J. A. Mashaw, H. J. Soland, J. G. Gaiennie, N. J. Vidrine, E. Vidrine, Avit Vidrine, C. Villeret, E. Treloue, E. Laughlin, G. Weil, H. Fux, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kestner, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tracy, Geo. Daigle, E. Morean, Rene Alboreo, Theo. Mayer, James Goodwin, L. L. Hennigan, T. A. Williams, P. Bordenou, W. C. Goss, W. Berry, D. ROCHESTER, N. Y.

The Re-union of the Rochester Alumni took place Saturday, June 17th, at Dr. Westervelt's school on St. Paul Street. The day was beautiful, and it is certainly an event which will not soon be forgotten. A few of the Alumni arrived Friday, and took in the closing exercises, which were exceedingly fine. More came Saturday morning, and by noon the number went up to about one hundred and fifty. It was the thirty-fifth anniversary of the opening of the School, though the real birthday is October 4th. It seemed more fitting to celebrate it while some of the oldest members were present. A meeting was held in the morning in a huge tent opposite the school house. Several terms had not expired, so the only new election was for members on the Board of Directors. It was then time for dinner, and the good things Dr. Westervelt had provided were soon out of sight. Games then began, first a ball game between the Rochester and "boys" from other schools. The Rochesterians won. Different races were then entered into with great interest. Supper was served on the lawn. Later a mass meeting was held in the chapel and letters were read from former teachers and pupils who could not attend, and several of the Alumni made speeches taking all back to memories of dear old school days, and telling how proud and glad they were they had been pupils of the Rochester School. A large, mysterious "something" covered with yellow cloth, was taken to the platform and a speech made to Dr. Westervelt, and he was requested to just walk up and look at it. He said "Yellow is the school color," and took one end of the cloth, and as he did so President Kemp took the other end and lifted it, revealing a lovely picture of the school buildings and grounds, a present from his "children," as he calls them. He actually took the picture up in his arms and hugged it, he was so pleased and looked so well and happy it delighted all who were there. Miss Halpen was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses for being the oldest deaf teacher present. Next on the program was a reception in the Kindergarten rooms. Dancing, talking and eating ice-cream made time fly on fleeting wings. All were asked to "lend their eyes" a few minutes, and President Kemp gave Mr. and Mrs. Horace Perry, who had come the longest distance to the School, on their wedding trip, a fine case containing brush, comb, etc., and to Mr. Wm. Eastman a silk umbrella for being the oldest former pupil present. It was then time to think of good-byes. Sunday morning Dr. Westervelt gave a very interesting talk in the chapel, Sunday afternoon a number went to put flowers on Miss Hamilton's grave, and that closed one of the most successful meetings of the Alumni. It was much nicer to stay on the premises and get a chance to visit than to go to the different resorts. A few crossed the bridge for a visit to Maplewood Park and their dear old school-mother, Mrs. Diemer, in her new home. The oldest of the Alumni present from out of town were Messrs. Wm. Eastman, Charles Thomas, George Morgan, Franklin Adair; Mrs. Sabra Wilson, Cornelius Santiman, Miss Fisher, Miss Naylor. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Whyland, Blasse, Moore, Dewitt, Thompson, Weil, Klein, Minkle, Cleveland, Thayer, Connerton, Haenszel, Bromwich; Messrs. Schurr, Zwik, Ode, Batty; Miss Thayer, Mr. Gates, Mr. Hanke, Mr. Welsh, of Fanwood School, Miss Laura Wallace, and others I cannot recall at this writing. Many of the city deaf were there too. It was indeed a Red Letter Day, one long to be remembered and talked over. Remarks were made as to what the deaf would do without Dr. Westervelt. He has been a good father to his many children and has a grand school. He and his wife will leave shortly for his summer cottage at Sodus Bay. A good restful time to them. A Strawberry Festival will be held at St. Luke's, Thursday evening, June 22d.

Mr. Wood has gone to Elmira to visit Mr. and Mrs. Murray and other friends there. Tickets were sold at the Re-union for a raffle to benefit Mr. E. Hahn and children, of Buffalo, who lost everything when his home was burned. All gave gladly and willingly.

No woman on her way to buy a new hat was ever known to commit suicide. Keeping children in school has kept many fathers out of insane asylums.

PHILADELPHIA.

News items for this column should be sent to James S. Reider, 1538 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

At the monthly meeting of the Philadelphia Local Branch at All Souls' Hall, on Saturday evening, 17th of June, an interesting lot of views on India were exhibited by means of the stereopticon. The views are the property of the Rev. E. H. East, M.D., a medical missionary of Haka, Chen Hills, Burma, who also was expected to give a descriptive talk of them, but was prevented from putting in his appearance by ill-health. In his place, Mr. Harry F. Smith, whose sister has visited most of the places shown, told what he knew of each view and did very well in that difficult role. By the way, Mr. Smith deserves grateful mention for the interest he continually shows in the Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf, and it was chiefly through his instrumentality that the above interesting views were exhibited. After the exhibition ice-cream and cake were served and a pleasant social evening was passed.

The Merry-makers' Club held its monthly meeting at the home of its President, Mr. Charles M. Pennell, on Saturday evening, June 17th. Most of the evening was occupied in business, so that no time was left for games. There was time, however, for refreshments and so the evening was not without enjoyment. Later, as the members of the Club were leaving for their homes, an accident happened to Mrs. Elmer E. Scott which caused much sorrow. In some manner she fell down the front steps of the house and sprained her right foot near the ankle so badly that she will be confined to her home for some time.

One of the graduates of the Philadelphia Trade School is William Welsh King, who graduated from the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb at Mount Airy three years ago. In the fall he will take a normal training at the Drexel Institute, having won a scholarship.—Frankford Dispatch.

On July 1st next William Welsh King, Wilbur Oledhil, Ted Hughes, John Norwacka and Arthur Clayton, all graduates of the Mt. Airy Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, with their friends and teacher, Edwin Stauley Thompson, will cruise along the Lehigh Valley for two months on their houseboat, the "Vagabond," starting from Bristol.—Frankford Dispatch.

The Clerc Literary Association held its June quarterly business meeting last Thursday evening, 15th inst.

The remains of Miss Ruth Cowan were open to view on Sunday evening, 11th inst., and quite a number of deaf gathered at the house and made a handsome floral offering collectively. The remains were interred in Oakland Cemetery, Frankford, the following day, the Rev. Mr. Dantzer officiating. These deaf called on Sunday evening:—Mr. and Mrs. George Cowan, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Laughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hagy, Mr. and Mrs. James Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. B. Sweeney, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. Yoder, Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott, Mrs. M. Syle, Mrs. E. Rival, Mrs. S. O. Dautrecht, Miss Getta Buzbum, Miss Grunbaum, Mr. F. Wahl, Mr. R. Kenney, Mr. W. Savage, Mr. G. Zang, Mr. G. Heckman, Mr. H. Aldridge, Mr. H. Schapurio, Mr. D. Chestnut, Mr. W. Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Ahmes, of New York, paid Philadelphia a visit the latter part of last week, stopping at the Hotel Walton, on Broad Street. But for a slight misunderstanding as to their coming, they would have received a better welcome from our deaf. As it was, the couple first met Mr. Sanders, who had them in tow most of the time afterwards, and we believe they returned home pleased with their visit.

Rev. C. O. Dantzer left for Johnstown, Pa., on Saturday morning, 17th inst., and we understand, delivered a lecture there in the evening. On Sunday he was to be in Pittsburg and celebrant at the Communion Service for Rev. Mr. Allabough.

Orvis Dantzer, who is home on his vacation, has secured a temporary position in a banking office at Broad and Chestnut Streets for the summer. He expects to return to Hobart College at Geneva, N. Y., in the Fall. His brother, "Freddie," has been entertaining high hopes of spending the hot season in far off Indianapolis with his grandmother, but he is still in dear old Philadelphia at this writing.

Mrs. E. E. Rigg pleasantly surprised her mother on her birthday by a visit at Elizabeth, N. J., on Saturday, 17th. She returned the following day.

The deaf of Shamokin, Pa., and those living in that section of the State, will picnic at Edgewood Park (Shamokin), on Saturday, August 5th, 1911. Mr. William K. Clayton, cor. 14th and Centre Streets, Ashland, Pa., is in charge of the event, and we understand, the proceeds will be for the benefit of the Home at Doylestown. About eight deaf-mutes of Scranton and points along the line came to Philadelphia on an excursion on Saturday, returning home on Sunday evening. Of them we met three at All Souls' Church, Messrs. Morris Garbett, O. L. Clark, both of Scranton, and Thomas Williams, of Summit Hill, near Mauch Chunk.

Valentine Wilson, elder son of Mrs. E. D. Wilson, will graduate from the Central Manual Training School this week. Through the help of a relative he will at once enter the real estate business as an agent or salesman.

Mrs. William Lee is again being treated for her foot at the Chestnut Hill Hospital.

The following is taken from the Harrisburg Patriot of June 9th:

An unusual occurrence took place Wednesday afternoon, June 8th, at the funeral services of Joseph H. Zimmermann, of Steelton, Pa., when an address was delivered by Rev. Franklin C. Smielau in the language of signs, which is used by the deaf-mutes, and those who sat in the pews of Trinity Episcopal Church, seemed to be greatly impressed by the words translated to them by the deaf-mute rector, through the movements of his fingers and hands.

Mr. Zimmermann, who was 65 years old, a deaf-mute, succumbed on Sunday noon, at 12:15, June 4th, to a complication of diseases. He was an old employee of the Pennsylvania Steel Company, and worked in the rail mill department of the Steel plant for thirty years. The Rev. John Mills Gilbert, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, who was a life-long friend of the deceased man, took part in the funeral service. Interment was made in Baldwin County.

Mr. Joseph H. Zimmermann received his education at the Broad and Pine Street School in Philadelphia. He was born on a farm in Pennsylvania and was the oldest in the family. He was deaf and also had a deaf sister, Mrs. Mary Blair of Harrisburg, who lost her hearing when she was five years old through sickness with scarlet fever. He was born deaf. He leaves a wife and three daughters to mourn his loss. He had a son who was killed in the Steel foundry three years ago. His daughters are Mrs. Henry Hagy, Mrs. David Devlin, of Steelton, Pa., and Mrs. Jennie Smith, of Harrisburg. His wife is now living with one of the daughters, Mrs. David Devlin. He was married forty years ago, December 27th, 1871. He was taken sick on the day of his son's birthday and the end came to relieve him of further earthly suffering.

Mr. James McClintock's brother, William McClintock, has been a policeman twenty-two years, and eleven years a sergeant of the 36th District in Nicetown.

The Rev. B. R. Allabough has finally severed his connection with the Western Pennsylvania Institution, at Edgewood, Pa. Before the closing of school, the teachers and officers of the school and a few outsiders, presented him with a fine genuine seal satchel. From now on his time will be taken up exclusively with Church work, his field being in the following dioceses: Pittsburg, Ohio, Southern Ohio, Lexington, Ky., Indianapolis and Michigan. After his ordination to the Priesthood, which is expected to take place in October, he will move to Cleveland, Ohio, in order to be more centrally located.

The Rev. Mr. Dantzer spent last week in Johnstown, Greensburg and Pittsburg. Large attendances were in evidence all along the line. On his homeward journey he stopped off again in Johnstown, where he enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Barker. The former piloted him about the city showing him the points of interest, the path of the destroying waters of over twenty-three years ago, etc. Then they went up the inclined plane to Westmont, a beautiful and exclusive residence quarter, from which vantage point the whole of Johnstown could be seen at a glance. A short walk brought them to Grand View Cemetery, where are buried most of the victims of that dreadful flood, and in a large plot are buried the unidentified dead. The latter is an impressive sight—rows of rows of unmarked headstones and in the van of all a large memorial group in stone, the centre of which is an angel pointing upward. Leaving the cemetery the two took a long winding road down to the city below in order to take in the beautiful views along the road, but the way was long and the day hot, so coming to a place where the road below seemed easy to reach by taking a narrow footpath and then avoid going a long way around, Mr. Dantzer, who by the way is apparently not much of a mountaineer, went merrily down, but soon missed his footing and to save himself from falling went running down at break neck speed. For a time it looked as if he would fall over a small bluff about seven feet in height and be severely bruised, but just before he reached it he managed to stop himself, not, however, until he had strained his left ankle to such an extent that he is now somewhat lame. Mr. Barker, being a good mountaineer, found descending the hill as easy as falling off a log.

On Sunday, July 2d, Holy Communion will be administered at All Soul's Church at 10.30 A. M. There will be no afternoon service.

The following was reported in the daily papers last week:—

John Barnes, a deaf-mute, 30 years old, of 2330 Vine Street, died at the Garretson Hospital yesterday, June 18th, as a result of injuries received when he fell from a third story window to the street at 2334 Callowhill Street. William Thompson and Mary Mullen, occupants of the house, were arrested and given a hearing before Magistrate Beaton yesterday morning, at the Twentieth and Buttonwood Streets Police Station.

On the testimony of Abraham Solomon, proprietor of the house, and other evidence to the effect that the woman was on the front doorstep at the time of the accident, and that the man was not in the house at all, Magistrate Beaton discharged both of the suspects.

James and William Barnes, brothers of the dead man, declared yesterday that they believed their brother had met his death through foul play, the motive of which was robbery. They affirm that their brother had $9 in his pocket when he went to the house, and when he arrived at the hospital there was no money in his clothes at all.

On Tuesday evening, June 20th, the annual reception and social of the Men's Club was held in All Souls' Guild Hall. It was well attended, the sexes being about evenly divided. Social intercourse, recitations and games provided a pleasant time for all. They also received refreshing treat of ice-cream and cakes. Altogether it was a very enjoyable event, credit for which is due to Messrs. Thomas E. Jones, H. J. Haight, and R. E. Underwood, the committee.

Miss Jeanette King gave a reading of St. Elmo, before the Clerc Literary Association last Thursday evening, 22d of June, and was one of five or six competitors for a prize, offered by President Sanders for the best delivery from a book by the younger members of the Association. Miss King won the prize, a book, entitled "The Call of the Wild," by Jack London. Considering that her story was a long and difficult one and that a colloquial delivery made it even harder, we think the award was a just one. Several times the young lady seemed to tax her memory to continue the colloquy, but she managed to keep at it to the finish. Bravo!

Mrs. Mary H. Rocap, entertained a number of her friends at her home, 1422 Cambridge Street, last Saturday evening, June 24th. Mrs. Rocap intends to spend the summer with her son in Olney, so, before closing her home, she invited some friends to spend an evening with her. A very pleasant evening was passed by all. Refreshments, consisting of ice-cream, cakes, lemonade, oranges, peaches and bananas, were served. Among those present were: Dr. John E. Lewis, Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Dantzer, Mrs. M. J. Syle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Pennell, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reider, Mrs. Katie Hoopes, Mrs. E. E. Rigg, Miss Nellie Lynch, and Messrs. Andrew Leitch, Howard Scribner, H. J. Haight, and Wm. McKinush.

Mrs. H. K. Heath, of Flatbush, N. Y., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Breen, in this city. Miss Helena L. Bowden left for New York last Thursday, and, after a short stay there, will proceed to New England. Her mother will follow her a little later. Miss Helen Ruth Lipsett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Lipsett, has gone to Wildwood, N. J., to recuperate her health. She is accompanied by an aunt. The Philadelphia Local Branch will meet at All Souls' Hall, on Saturday evening, July 8th.

NEW YORK.

News items for this column, should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

A few words of information in a letter or on a postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

Clear skies and delightfully cool weather favored the Hollywood Fraternity on Saturday last, when they held their Outing and Games at Ulmer Park.

And it was a large and representative crowd that assembled to enjoy the occasion.

There were any number of deaf athletes present to take part in the field games, and it is extremely creditable to them that such a large proportion of athletic youth can be mustered together; for it shows indisputably that they lead clean and wholesome lives.

The games began at about three o'clock, with the Hollywood members prominent and busy—and all wearing tasteful badges of silk and gold lace—in the work of organizing.

They selected as Judges of the contests Messrs. E. A. Hodgson, John F. O'Brien, John M. Black, L. Baker, Anthony Capelli, Eugene Moeslein.

Messrs. Chester Q. Mann and Harry Holmes acted alternately as Starters, while Henry Beneman marshalled the contestants and made the games go off quickly and smoothly.

The relay race was first run off, and was a pretty contest. The Clark Deaf-Mute Athletic Club led the way, winning quite handily. The Xavier boys were second, Fanwood third and the Alphabet Club last.

If Nimmo had been equal to his opponent the Fanwoods would have been second, but he tired out on the last quarter and was passed by the fleet Xavier youngster who began the lap nearly forty yards in the rear. The Clark boys got a fine large silver cup, handsomely engraved, for their victory.

A seventy-five yard dash for young ladies followed. The first heat was won by Miss Helen Bowden, of Philadelphia. The second heat was captured by Miss Irene Dandon. In the final heat, Miss Dandon won, beating Miss Bowden by a scant foot. Miss Dandon's prize was a gold jewelry box.

The 100-yard dash, as usual, was won by the peerless Breslau, of the Clark Club, with his running mate, Rathem, second. There was some dispute about second place so it was run over, with the same result, although Gabrielewitz was beaten less than a yard. A gold medal went to the first and a silver medal to second.

Clark House again recorded a victory in the 440-yard run. Breslau was first and Fischer second. Gold and silver medals were given to first and second, respectively.

A walking match, in which about twenty ladies competed, was won by Mrs. Charles Fetscher, who received a china teapot.

The mile run brought out Ohland, Lykes, Fischer, M. Plaping, A. Boroehow, Seibel and Breslau—the last named quit at the first lap. Ohland was an easy winner, with Lykes second, and Boroehow third.

The three-mile run was contested by Varrone, Wiemuth, Dianno, Mattes, Ohland, Lykes, Bohman and Boroehow. It was won handily by Varrone with Wiemuth second.

In the ball-throwing contest by young ladies, Miss Florence Hewes won a gilt inkstand.

And then came the tug-of-war. The following teams entered: No. 1—Foland, Seaman, Gabrielewitz, Dennon, and Kerner.

No. 2—Doenges, Zimmerman, Nimmo, Schatzkin, Oberbeck.

No. 3—(Hollywood) Beneman, Seelig, Thomas, Mann, Renner.

No. 4—(Brooklyn Frats) Taylor, Hanneman, Schuutzanz, Eluhr, McLaren.

No. 5—Goldstein, Simon, Schulman, Sweyd, Miller.

No. 6—Lonegan, Prinsinzing, Brown, Rudolph, Curco.

The winners in the trials were Nos. 1 and 6 and the Brooklyn Frats. The latter won in the finals and received a silk banner.

The baseball game was between the Brooklyn Frats and Hollywood Fraternity, and was won by the former. Only five innings were played.

On Wednesday evening, June 14th, Miss Loretta Pearsall was married to Mr. L. A. Ames. Rev. Dr. Chamberlain officiated at the ceremony. There were about fifty guests present, mostly relatives of the bride and groom. Among those at the wedding reception were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Little, the Misses Libonia Mauere, Margaret Payne, Gladys Williams, Josie Burke, and Messrs. W. I. Calaban and Emery F. Wolgamot.

Mr. Louis A. Ames gave a farewell bachelor dinner to the members of the Acorn Club, of which he is the President, at his residence on Saturday evening, June 10th.

The Club presented him with a chest of silver consisting of knives, forks, spoons, etc., as a wedding gift from the members. Among those present were Messrs. E. B. Earnst, O. L. Loew, W. I. Calaban, A. Fliegenheimer, E. B. McGinnis, C. C. McMann, H. Glostein, A. B. Ernst, G. W. Rau and Emery F. Wolgamot.

Gallaudet Home. Mrs. Annie Silks Ashton, the First Vice-President of the Ladies' Board, was recently obliged to retire on account of the death of her husband, which occurred in Hyde Park, N. Y., some time ago. Mrs. Ashton and one of her daughters have taken up their residence with Rev. Frederick Ashton, the newly-appointed rector of St. Paul Episcopal Church in Salem, Washington County.

After supper not many days ago, Mrs. Roberts wandered away and a search was made for her, and to the relief of all, she was found and brought back. She wears gold trimmed eye-glasses and white caps. Mr. Cunningham came here from the old Home in New York City, on April 22d. Miss Fischel, Mr. Ayres and the writer on May 6th, a quarter of a century ago. Changes for the better since then have taken place in this building, and on the farm.

Lillian C. Mellwraith, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mellwraith, aged eleven years, died, June 14th, 1911, at about 12:30 in the morning, and was buried in Evergreen Cemetery on Friday morning. Rev. Dr. John Chamberlain preached the funeral service on Thursday evening, June 15th, with Rev. Mr. A. D. Carlisle, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mellwraith, 954 Broadway, Brooklyn, N. Y. Many of Mr. and Mrs. Mellwraith's relatives and friends attended, and all expressed their sincerest sympathy.

Mr. W. S. Kupfer, of the Lexington Avenue School, New York City, is again spending the summer with Edwin S. Mosbacher at his home in Arverne, L. I. They expect to go travelling together this summer. WEDDING BELLS. RINK-WINTON

Miss Clara Belle Winton and Mr. Arthur P. Rink, of Beardstown, Ill., were married at the residence of the bride's father, W. R. Winton, 906 North Fifth Street, Columbus, Ind., June 21, the Rev. Father J. B. DeLaney, of St. Bartholomew's Catholic Church, officiating.

The home was prettily decorated in sweet peas and a number of friends and relatives were present to witness the ceremony. Father Delaney tied the knot in most impressive style and in an address to the newly wedded pair was most happy. His remarks as well as the ceremony itself, were interpreted by Miss Della Winton, a sister of the bride. The groom was attended by Mr. W. I. Tilton, while Miss Bessie McGregor, of Columbus, O., and a classmate of the bride both at Columbus and at Gallaudet, was bridesmaid. Miss Ethel Zell, of Columbus and Miss Byers, of Seymour, Ind., were among the out-of-town guests present. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, and shortly after the bridal pair left via automobile amid a shower of rice and followed by the best wishes of the company. They will spend their honeymoon among the cities of the East. Their future home will be at Beardstown, Ill.

Miss Winton is a graduate of the Columbus School and is a young woman of most attractive personality. She was also a student at Gallaudet. She is peculiarly fitted for the duties of a good wife and Mr. Rink is indeed fortunate in having won her.

Mr. Rink is a son of Mr. Anton Rink, of Beardstown, Ill. He attended school at Jacksonville for several years, leaving to take a private course under Rev. J. H. Cloud. Later he entered Gallaudet College, where he remained two years, leaving to enter upon a business career, assisting his father in the management of his extensive and growing business interests. He is a young man of excellent business ability and enjoys a wide acquaintance among the deaf. He is a Frat and an active member of the National Association of the Deaf. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Rink will wish them a long and happy married life. W. I. T.

Gallaudet Home. Mrs. Annie Silks Ashton, the First Vice-President of the Ladies' Board, was recently obliged to retire on account of the death of her husband, which occurred in Hyde Park, N. Y., some time ago. Mrs. Ashton and one of her daughters have taken up their residence with Rev. Frederick Ashton, the newly-appointed rector of St. Paul Episcopal Church in Salem, Washington County.

After supper not many days ago, Mrs. Roberts wandered away and a search was made for her, and to the relief of all, she was found and brought back. She wears gold trimmed eye-glasses and white caps. Mr. Cunningham came here from the old Home in New York City, on April 22d. Miss Fischel, Mr. Ayres and the writer on May 6th, a quarter of a century ago. Changes for the better since then have taken place in this building, and on the farm.

At an entertainment gotten up on the evening of May 11th by members of the Sunday School connected with the Presbyterian Church at the Falls, Master Carl Berg, the four-year old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Moore, gave a recitation about "Little Boy Blue," which delighted every body present. This bit of news is from the Poughkeepsie Evening Star.

Carl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Berg, are deaf-mutes, and are known to most of us here.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Kate M. Jones, the matron, received an interesting letter from Mrs. W. T. Van Lewis, of Springfield, Ill., who, with her son William, last March visited the Home. Mrs. Van Lewis desired to get information about this charitable institution for William to report at the Convention, which is to be held in Jacksonville, Ill., on June 18th, and which they will attend.

Mr. William G. Gilbert, of Brooklyn, lately presented the Home a very fine gilt framed portrait of Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, its founder, which hangs in a conspicuous place on the north wall in the dining hall. The picture is forty inches by thirty-six, and does great credit as Mr. Gilbert's work. To add to the gift Mr. Gilbert sent some valuable books by mail. His daughter, Miss Bertha, hopes to enter College next Fall. If so the young lady has our best wishes for good luck and success in whatever calling she may choose when she completes it.

Mrs. Warren S. Foster and Miss H. Rose Jewett, of the Ladies' Board were here on business not long ago. They were much pleased with Matron Jones' excellent management.

Friday morning, May 19th, Mr. Miner took a trolley ride to Poughkeepsie to make some purchases. While the old gentleman was there a terrific hail storm swept over the lower part of Dutchess County, farms were ruined and other damage was done, but he got back safe and sound.

Mrs. Camp was in receipt short time ago, of a box from her step-sister, Mrs. Fannie Pomeroy, who lives in Lockport, N. Y. On opening the box Mrs. Camp was delighted to find a dress, which she fixed to suit.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Chamberlain's oldest daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Shepard and family, are nicely settled in their new house in Maplewood, N. J., which may be within easy distance of New York.

Monday, May 22d, Mrs. Steward was eighty-two years old. She got several pretty cards and presents.

Matron Jones and Miss Warren went up to the "Queen City" before noon, Saturday, May 27th. Miss Warren boarded the steamer "Robert Fulton" for Albany to do some shopping and enjoy a few days' jaunt.

Mr. C. Q. Mann gave the inmates a religious talk in the chapel on the last Sunday of the Spring season, after which he filled his appointment in Newburg.

Old Glory was hung to the breeze at early dawn on Decoration Day, and remained floating until the sun had vanished behind the western hills.

We have about two hundred and fifty chickens, some of which are sold.

Mr. Jones, the new inmate will reach his eighty-fourth birthday on September 27th. He is cheerful and willing to do what little work he can.

Founders' Day, June 3d, was well observed in spite of the threatening aspect of the weather, but as the hours sped old Sol made himself visible. The Standing Committee held a meeting at eleven o'clock, while the inmates were at dinner, and shortly after the guests numbering about fifty partook of a nice luncheon, then the chapel doors were thrown open, and when all had been seated, Rev. Dr. Chamberlain delivered quite an interesting address, in which he spoke in high praise of Dr. Gallaudet's work in behalf of the aged and infirm deaf-mutes of the State, some of whom now here owe him a lasting debt of gratitude.

The Lady Managers in attendance were: Mrs. D. Crosby Foster, President, Mrs. L. N. Phinney, Miss V. E. Gallaudet, Miss Annette J. F. Young, Miss James Roosevelt, Mrs. W. S. Foster, Miss Elizabeth P. Nelson, Miss Kate A. Pott, Mrs. Harvey Bartlett, Mrs. Charles H. Roberts, Mrs. J. M. Mandeville and Mrs. H. Rose Jewett.

The Trustees happened to be Mr. Albert L. Willis, Mr. H. G. Wisner, Mr. Harold Cotham, Dr. J. Howard Reel, Mr. E. A. Hodgson, Mr. Francis W. Nubner and Mr. H. Ludwig Juhring.

The deaf-mutes who did honor to the occasion were Mrs. Mary E. Haight, Mrs. Cornelia N. Lewis, Mrs. Felix Simonson, Rev. John H. Keiser, Miss Sarah C. Howard, Mrs. Isabella Beusinger, Mr. Henry C. Kohlman, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Elsworth, Miss Anna M. Putnam, Mr. Samuel Frankenheim, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Juhring, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Thomas.

A thorough inspection was given the Home and farm, and much enthusiasm manifested for the splendid condition in which they are kept.

Under date of June 4th, the Poughkeepsie Courier gave a brief, but nice account of the affair.

Mr. Edwin Paliu, a former inmate, called to see his friends not long ago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shaw, of Manhattan, sailed for England, on a recent Saturday, to visit their daughter, whose husband holds a position in the British Army. Mrs. Shaw is a member of the Ladies' Board, but she will not be present at the annual meeting in October, as she wishes to stay abroad indefinitely.

Flag Day, June 14th, was fittingly observed. Mrs. Rusk has a framed picture of Betty Ross, who was the first woman to hoist such an emblem on American soil, and it brings back memories of the Revolutionary War, in which Mrs. Lydia Darrah also took a prominent part.

Mrs. Ferd Harrison (nee Miss Maggie Shieder), wife of Ferd Harrison, an employe of the Government Printing Office at Washington, D. C., as a linotype operator, is spending the summer at Colorado Springs with his relatives. Mrs. Harrison, accompanied by Miss Bonita Mawhiney and Mrs. C. P. Jones, both of the Springs, were down and spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sullivan two weeks ago. Mrs. Harrison is soon to be joined by her husband, who contemplates a trip to the coast before returning to his duties for Uncle Sam.

Joe Capehart, of Denver, Colo., a cement finisher, who is making good, has moved his family to this city, where they will remain until the cement laying of the big Vail Hotel where Joe is employed is finished, which will be inside of six weeks. They will then most probably return to Denver, where Joe expects to land a good long job.

After being separated from her husband for a long time and finally divorced, Mrs. Jim Yost was married to a worthy hearing person, Mr. Towne. They are happy and contented in their cosy home in this city.

Miss Luella Lamoreaux, the bright little 12-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lamoreaux, of 1012 West Sixteenth Street, after a short illness with appendicitis, died at the St. Mary's Hospital several weeks ago. Her funeral was largely attended and the floral offerings were many and beautiful. It was indeed very sad to see such a bright young life being taken at the time when she was so eager to become a useful woman, but God is good and He knows what is best, so we bow to His decree.

C. P. Jones, a knight of the stick employed on the Out West at Colorado Springs, was down to visit his daughter, Mrs. Tom Sullivan, last Sunday. He returned on the evening train in order to be "on his job" Monday.

It is rumored that Mrs. Rena Wise and Mr. Charles Webster are to be joined in the holy bonds of matrimony sometime in the near future. Mr. Webster is a hearing person, but handles the mute code as well as he handles the tongue code and is a man of strict business habits, and an honest, industrious man. We wish him and Mrs. Wise plenty of happiness. Mrs. Wise was made a widow some eight years ago by the sudden death of her husband, William Wise, a mattress maker.

Walter Nash, brother of J. C. Nash, is dangerously ill with rheumatism of the heart, at his home.

Newton Parsons, a book agent who is traveling selling the simple wording dictionary, is spending a few days in this city. He reports trade quite brisk.

Mr. and Mrs. Schinez, of Kansas, an aged couple, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lamoreaux.

Leon Schwartz, a linotype operator from Buffalo, N. Y., stopped over a few hours on his way to Denver, thence to the coast. He is a very prosperous young man and carries himself gracefully. He was the guest of yours truly while here.

OHIO.

[News items for this column may be sent to our Ohio News Bureau, care of Mr. A. B. Greener, 988 Franklin Ave., Columbus, O.]

June 23, 1911.—Notice was received here last week of the death of Ira Crandon, at Girard, Ohio. The end came on the morning of June 13th. He had been in bad health for some time, and about a month ago meeting a Columbus friend he remarked that he had not long to live. He was a pupil of the school from 1855 to 1862, and at the time of death was sixty-six years of age. He was chosen treasurer of the Alumni Association at its second meeting in August 1872 and continued as such up to the tenth meeting in 1898. He was boys' supervisor for several years and later was a teacher in the school for some time. Before holding these positions he was a harness maker in the town where he died and followed the trade when severing his connection with the school. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Herbert Jones.

J. Albert Horn, Zanesville's deaf tailor, has branched out in his business and with his brother runs a ladies and gents clothes pressing and cleaning establishment by the dry chemical process. Business has been very good with him this spring and he expects more customers in the fall.

Mrs. C. W. Charles, with her two little daughters, left Wednesday morning for Flint, Michigan, to attend the Alumni Association reunion, which began Thursday. Mr. Charles was unable to accompany her at this time, owing to some extra work having to be turned out before July 1st.

Miss Ethel Zell, after attending the Winton-Rink wedding, at Columbus, Indiana, Wednesday, came down to Dayton, to visit relatives for a week. The wedding, an account of which will be furnished the JOURNAL later, was a simple, quiet affair. Miss Bessie McGregor and Mr. Tilton, of Illinois, served as bridesmaid and best man respectively. Miss McGregor reached home Wednesday evening, where she will spend most of her vacation.

Mr. William L. Sawhill, of Swissvale, Pa., is taking a vacation and has hied himself up to Michigan for a two weeks' stay. He arrived in Detroit Saturday evening, where he became the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Griffin, former schoolmates with him in the Ohio School. Mr. Sawhill will look in upon the Flint School reunion and see how the brethren north of us do things at such affairs.

Mr. Schory went up to the Home Sunday to conduct services for the residents. Things looked bright about the place after the refreshing rain of two days previous. A fine crop of strawberries had been gathered from the vines set out in the fall and the raspberries promise an abundant yield. One hundred and fifty chickens and fifty young turkeys are the result of the spring's yield. The hay crop will be short owing to long dry weather. Mr. George McCloskey, of Westerville, donated to the Home twenty maple trees in the spring, and Superintendent Chapman had them set out along the road fronting the property of the Home. They are all doing well and will in time add to the beauty of the place as well as afford a shady walk along the road for pedestrians.

Miss May Greener has been in the Protestant Hospital since the close of school, where she underwent an operation for an internal growth. She is doing finely under the circumstances and will probably be strong enough to resume her work in the fall.

The following pupils are employed about the school to assist in house cleaning and painting during part of the vacation: Stanley Cottrell, Aloin Cowden, Clarence George, Emery Madison, John Probert, John Davis, Ross Mahr, P. Myers, Israel Crossen, Frank Neal and Irwin Burton.

Superintendent Jones is taking a short vacation out in the country with relatives.

James Turney goes up to Cleveland Saturday to attend the lawn fête given under the auspices of the C. A. D., at the home of Mrs. Laura McDill Bates, for the benefit of the Home for the Deaf.

Miss Cloa G. Lamson accompanied by Mrs. George Clum and two children, left Thursday for Irving, New York, where she will pass the vacation with her sister, Mrs. Clum and children will be her guests for two months.

Mr. P. P. Pratt went up to Toledo Sunday, to visit his sister, who is in a feeble state and not expected to live long.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hines have taken the children of Mr. Joseph Neutzling down to their farm in Fayette County, to spend their vacation and get fat on country food and air.

A. B. G.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jones (nee Lizzie Hewitt) and children expect to attend the reunion of the Mississippi deaf at Jackson, August 16, 17 and 18, and will also pass a month with the husband's folks in the country near the same city.

Fred Blockford is working for the Harris Candy Company during the summer.

John Taylor, one of the recent graduates, has secured a position as an extra linotype operator in one of the offices in Middletown, Ohio. He hopes to become a regular when there shall be a vacancy.

The Rev. B. R. Allabough announces services in Ohio next week as follows: Cincinnati—St. Paul's Cathedral, July 2, 3 P.M. Dayton—Christ Church, July 2, 8 P.M. Springfield—Christ Church, July 3, 7:30 P.M.

Paul Smith has been assisting Mr. Charles in the printing office for a few days, printing the half tones for the new "History and Manual of Information" of the school. This pamphlet will be out early in July. The reading matter of fifty pages was set on the linotype.

Mr. Ohlemacher wishes to acknowledge the receipt of Easter offerings for the Home from the following: Mrs. Henry and L. A. Anthoni, $1.40; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Craig, $1.00; and No. 481, Canton, Ohio, 25 cents.

One day Miss Feasley was out walking with her three dogs, one of which is unlicensed, and opposite the Main Street firehouse the city dog catcher noticed that one dog and tried to catch it. Miss Feasley told the man to let go a woman in the street and mind his own business, and after some skirmishing caught the dog herself and carried it away in her arms, to the discomfort of the catcher. When she turned to look she saw the attaches of the firehouse cheering her for her bravery and humanity.

Miss Janson will be in Miami-burg, O., her old home, until August 15th, when she returns to Columbus.

Charles H. Fry, of Cincinnati, left last Thursday, for Jacksonville, Ill., to attend the reunion of the Illinois deaf. His first school days were spent there, but he graduated at Columbus in 1910.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robbins leave July 2d, for a week's visit with relatives in Southern Ohio. Mr. Robbins has a week's vacation from his shoe factory.

Earl Wildermuth, one of the recent graduates, expects to enter the Chicago Art Institute next week. He has an ambition to make art his life work, and we wish him success.

William Arras, next year a Senior in Gallaudet College, gladdened the hearts of his friends by stopping in the city from Thursday morning till Saturday. The boys, especially William Toomey, hung on his words of college life and incidents. On and on into dimming dusk, out doors, did they listen, and the enforced transposition to brilliant electric light doors but gave his tales a doubly entrancing halo.

AN OPEN LETTER.

LITHONIA, GA., JUNE 21 1911.

MR. OLOF HANSON, President N. A. D.

DEAR SIR:—I have just read an article in the Southern Optimist, stating that the deaf-mutes of Georgia made a verbal offer, pledging themselves to raise $1500.00 to entertain the convention in the event they should meet in Atlanta.

I feel it my duty as a member of the N. A. D. and as a delegate from Georgia to the Colorado convention, to correct that statement. We did not make any such pledge, but did agree to give the convention a Georgia barbecue.

We were not with Mrs. Jackson's few followers to withdraw our invitations to the convention to come to Atlanta, and we are very anxious to have it meet with us in 1913.

Best wishes and hoping to have the convention with us in Atlanta. I am, Cordially yours, JOHN M. JONES.

TESTIFIES IN SIGN LANGUAGE.

A jury in Justice Newburger's part of the Supreme Court is hearing evidence in the suit begun for Walter Harriman, a deaf-mute, by his mother, Mrs. Olivien Kirscher, to recover from the Francis H. Legget Company, wholesale grocers, $25,000 for injuries suffered when the boy was running a printing press for the company. Several of the witnesses for the plaintiff are deaf and dumb, and the boy's evidence was given through an interpreter by signs. The boy is a graduate of St. Joseph's Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, of Westchester village. The machine Harriman was operating got out of order on November 23, 1911, and his right hand was mutilated. It is stated that since the accident the boy has had to learn to talk again. Before the accident he used the right hand to express himself in signs, but had to be taught to use the left hand.—N. Y. Press.

Almost 12,000,000 pounds of rubber are produced within the bounds of the British Empire annually.

Men who are ashamed of the way their father made their money are never ashamed to spend it.

FANWOOD.

The Baccalaureate Sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. William Adams Brown, Sunday, June 16th. The exercises were very beautiful and appropriate, commencing with the entrance of the graduating class, followed by Principal Currier, Rev. Dr. Brown and Dr. Leale. The Band then changed from "Auld Lang Syne" to the "Star-Spangled Banner." Simultaneously, the Colors were borne in and placed on the platform. Then, after the Lord's Prayer, all seated themselves. The Sum of the Ten Commandments was spoken by several of the pupils, who were selected by the Principal. The choir then signed "Lead, Kindly Light," in conjunction with the Band, a most graceful and inspiring performance.

Rev. Dr. Brown was then introduced, and launched at once into his subject. Though addressed principally to the graduating class, the weight of his discourse was understood by all. His sermon was a most impressive and elevating one.

Upon his conclusion the Choir was again called upon and in graceful signs gave "Now the Day is Over." The Benediction by Rev. Dr. Brown followed, after which the Colors having been dismissed those present filed out to the tune of "Christian Soldiers," a most appropriate musical selection.

The last Review and Parade of the school year occurred directly after the chapel services. White belts and gloves were worn. Principal Currier, Rev. Dr. Brown and Dr. Leale were the reviewing officers.

The hurry and attention required to be given various details incident to the home-going, prevented us from gathering more detailed descriptions.

Saturday evening, June 15th, Prof. Jones gave one of the best lectures of the season, using as his subject, "The Absurdity of Some Legislative Bills." His merciless airing of the judicial and municipal weakness was both humorous and instructive, and as for the signs and way of putting it—Ah, me! It was the last lecture for the school year and when it came to a regrettable conclusion, the Professor received a rousing vote of thanks, commendation, applause, and what else you may choose to call those demonstrations wherewith those of Fanwood delight to evince their pleasure when they receive what is known to the hoi polloi as a "good thing."

Below will be found the baseball averages, etc., which we are sure will delight the heart of the most rabid fans. Several trifling details are omitted on account of lack of space, but we must not forget to mention the home-run and three three-base hits by Lieberz, which were crowded out of the general summary. What other school can show data as a good?

A very pleasant party, tendered to the members of the graduating class, was held at the Thomason home Monday evening. Games, succeeded by refreshments, took up the entire evening, and when the time to leave came around it was declared to be a most pleasant affair. Miss Pattie Thomason, her sister Jennie, their brother Frank, and mother, made the evening pass very swiftly indeed. Besides the members of the family, those who attended were Misses Klaus, Sprague, Krumholz, Leff, Pearce, Hershleifer, Adeock; Messrs. Blechner, Brauer, Quinn, Goldberg, Kadel, Greene and Dirkes. Before their departure a flashlight picture was taken of the group.

Mr. Frederick Fancher, a last year's graduate and Preparatory Student of Gallaudet College, was a Tuesday visitor, spending a good part with a few of his old friends who remained at the school until the following day. Besides entertaining all with a choice assortment of college stories, Fred proudly exhibited some pictures of the Band he has succeeded in getting out of the tooting talent at the college.

About one and a half score pupils now remain at Fanwood. This cuts down the JOURNAL force to four. Repairs and alterations are now being rushed under way. In the next issue the writer will attempt to give a live and full description of them. At present writing, the entire wooden floor of the boys' lavatory is being torn up, in order to make way for the laying of a new concrete one. As a result, things are running somewhat out of the usual groove.

The Gallaudet Memorial.

It is proposed to create a memorial to the late Rev. Thomas Gallaudet, D.D., by the erection of a Parish Building for St. Ann's Church for Deaf-Mutes. The present Church is situated on 148th Street, just west of Amsterdam Avenue, and is built some twenty-five feet back from the line of the street to permit the erection of such a building as above indicated, which will form a facade to the church edifice and be a center of religious and social life amongst the silent peoples. Dr. Gallaudet hoped during his lifetime to see the erection of this building, which would have completed the church with which his name has always been associated. This was not permitted, and it is suggested as a most fitting memorial to him that this work be now undertaken. St. Ann's Church is used wholly for the deaf-mutes.

The new building will occupy a plot of ground about forty-five feet along the street front and twenty-five feet in depth. It will be three stories in height, with a basement, and will be used for the social, religious and industrial needs of the deaf-mutes of New York. The amount required for "The Gallaudet Memorial Parish Building" will be about $30,000, and the building itself, in its position and purpose, will form a conspicuous monument to him whose life was devoted to the silent peoples. They themselves heartily endorse the memorial.

68 Broad Street,
