

Obituary: Donald J. Holmquist

Donald J. Holmquist

December, 23, 1921 - April, 13, 2009

Donald J. Holmquist retired Corporate Treasurer of Lilly passed away after a long illness. He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Barbara; and their son, Mark, his wife Denise; and two granddaughters, Jennifer and Kelley of Atlanta, Georgia; three sisters, Jeanna Carlton of San Diego, Caryl Holmquist of Kent, Washington and Marjorie Wolf of Berrien Springs, Michigan. He received a BS in 1942 from Indiana University and the Master of Science in 1943 in Economics and Accounting. He served under General Omar Bradley in the First Army in the Normandy Invasion, the Battle of the Bulge, and the occupation of Germany. He joined Lilly in April of 1946 and traveled all over the world. He was the International Treasurer and became Corporate Treasurer in 1974 until retirement. He was a private pilot and a licensed Real Estate Broker. He was a member of the Indiana Association of Certified Public Accountants and the Financial Executives Institute, the Indiana University School of Business Dean's Advisory Council, a Commissioner of the Indiana Commission for Higher Education for 17 years, a member of the board of directors of Ontario Corporation in Muncie, a member of the Indiana Secondary Market for Educational Loans, Inc., was elected to the Indiana University School of Business Academy of Alumni Fellow in 1974 and other Boards. He was made a Sagamore of the Wabash on four different occasions by three different governors. He was a member of Second Presbyterian Church and services will be held in the chapel under the direction of Rev. Robert Hunter on Thursday, April 16 at 9:00 am. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that contributions be made to St. Vincent Hospice, 8450 N. Payne Road, Indianapolis, IN 46268.

