

My dear John-

When asking
you Sunday to come to the Covenant Christmas festival, Friday night, I did not mention the time, so now beg to say that it commences promptly at 7 o'clock, and trust you will be able to go.

I might just as well add, in case I do not see you Friday, or do not get to speak Sunday morning, that I want you over for dinner Christmas Day, so please do not promise yourself away elsewhere.

It is now a long time since you were over for dinner, so I think you ought to say "Yes".

Trusting to have something favorable from you
I am as ever,

Your loving,
Rich.

Dec. 21 / 05.
R.S.

Although I have been a sick girl since you saw me last, I think I will be in good shape, so not to hinder my going Friday night. R.S.
