

My dear Ruth:-

This is Thursday morning a funny time to write ~~isnt~~ isnt it well I was going to write last night but was too tired. 6:15

Ma and Pa would like to have the whole bunch of ~~us~~ us over for a potato sausage supper next Saturday night.

Set me know if you will come this means my girl too you know who she is the one I sat with in the sofa last Sunday.

I got your well come post card last night and see you found out the girls saw me, I didnt think they did. I saw them as the train started but didnt notice that they saw me maybe they saw me when I got away off.

well I have only 5 minutes to eat breakfast in now so I better end up. The same to you as you wrote on the first card, it was small but I could understand it. With love and many X

Your John

Ed is better
