Dear John:-

Very surprising to hear from you, and I am glad something happened so I would receive a few lines during this week.

Referring to your queer remarks I myself never thought a thing of it, but you know how jolly mother is. When you were gone, she made a remark that you had seen too many girls during the day, so you were simply puzzled, but not that she had any ~~hard~~ feelings against you, for she thinks everything of you, only teasing me. He never thought any more of it until I received your letter this evening, when I thought best to ~~write~~ write these few lines. If it should happen again, don't get puzzled, for it is such a little matter to worry over.

You are still welcomed at any time during the week, or in other words, "whenever you see fit"

Now dropping this matter, you did not say Sunday whether you wanted to see me <sup>next</sup> Sunday or not, but hope that such is that case.

I must go Young Ladies meeting tonight, it being the last time until September, so I must close with regards from the folks, and my love to you, I am as ever

Your own,

Ritch

June 19/06

P.S. You have not been over for supper for some time, so can you do so next Sunday?
