Dearest John

I suppose you are awaiting a letter this morn. As I have not much to do this morning, will take a few minutes to write one to my dear boy, if it is only a few lines. Although it is only a few days since I saw you last, am already feeling lonesome.

Have a compliment for you Jennie's friend said, that he thinks you are a very nice boy. But he is not the only one for someone else thinks more of you than he or anyone I presume you know^{wt} that person is. I expect to have Jennie and her friend over a week from Sunday. Of course you are included. You ought to have been at the church Tuesday night

Miss Frances was very calm and asked for forgiveness, but Agnes Fernberg went out crying, and Hannah Peterson never showed up at all. I went back in the Society after all, but under the condition that they take back what they had against us, which they did, so I am still a member but Jennie and Alameda said "they will not show up again"

I myself thought if they made a square deal, I must do so also. They first wanted me to hold the resignation for about a month, but would not just wanted it settled before. I left I only wanted to feel free from the responsibility, and if necessary would then pay for the papers.

Last night was to Choir practice and then Agnes said, "good evening" to me. By the way the pictures are fine. Helen Ohm said that Hilda and I were the best although all are fine. What a slam against other

The boss will soon take pen and ink ~~away~~ away if I don't stop, but I guess I can hold on until I have finished.

Today is beautiful weather for the ducks. Do you want a swim? I do not!

There is a young people rally at the church Friday night. Dave and Ethel are going, but don't think I will unless you do, for if you are not there, I will stay home and sew. How will I find out.
