My lila Ruta:-

It is now nearly 10 o'clock but I will write a few lines to you any how. I don't think you ever got a letter as early in the week as this one from me. ~~but~~ As I promised to let your mother know about Mrs. Johnson I might as well write to night so she can get to know it in time. I wish she would come over ~~with~~ with your mother on Thursday afternoon.

Well how does my little girl feeling this week. all right & hope.

If you was here I'd give you a good squeeze and a x kiss. Oh now I am getting dazy again but don't you care.

To night Billie is sick in bed. from a tooth ache, the tooth has been pulled but it aches anyway.

When you go to the young ladies meeting tonight don't make them cry again. I can't think of any more to write I must have told you everything I knew last Sunday.

As soon as I came down this — morning ma asked if we went to church Sunday night, I didnt tell a fib about it I only said know.

She thinks I dont care for church no more so next Sunday I have to go again. The end of the letter So with all my love to you

I am —

Your Ted.
