

1/2/07

Dear John -

I came home last night feeling quite ill, but with mother's care and a day's rest, I have recovered fully enough to allow me to resume my duties in the city to-morrow.

Accept my heartiest greeting to you on this your Twentyfirst birthday, and may the joys that have been yours in the past, still be yours in the future and those to come multiply a hundred fold.

This together with my desire that success may be the crowning point of your achievements, are the warm wishes of Your loving,

Jan. 2, -07.

Ruth
