Dearest John.

Palmyra went
-to "Choir Practising" this evening and received from me two complementary tickets, one of which I enclose to you.

although it is only two days since I saw you last, it seems a week.

I have tried these last evenings, to sneak out early, just to cease

my aching heart for a while, but it has been impossible.

Elmore stayed around
until the last moment.

I was told by some one at the church that Harry Parson on Adast, brother to Hilda was married a short time ago. Although I have had nothing

Particular against him, I almost thought he would be the last person to go.

I am writing this letter
when I am just ready to retire, so feeling
chilled it is best to close this with love and many XXX

from
Your loving

Keith
