My dear John:-

Your invitation received for Saturday night, and I wish to extend thanks from all of us, also accept same. We will all be at hand about 7 o'clock, with the exception of Dave, who has an appointment, which he cannot break, although he says he wish he could. He, however wishes that I extend his thanks.

Am feeling fine, but am lonesome for you, that is the only thing that troubles me.

With lots of love,

I remain,

Your loving,
Kisha
