My dear Ruth:

I havent get any thing to go tonight so I guess I will write a little letter to you for a change.

Dont let it nock you over the shock of getting one again, I have to write one once in a while now for soon you wont get any more.

You know how it is after a boy and a girl has been ~~ever~~ acquainted for so long a time as we have, and so closely acquainted. They get so that writing dont satisfy them any longer. When they change thing so writing isnt necessary.

That is why you wont get many more.

If I had sent you a letter like this a year ago do you think you could stand the shock. Well I was just thinking about asking you, or rather posing the question then.

It makes me wish I had the job left to be done: It tickled me to see you blush that time I could give most any thing to see it again may be I was just as bad, but what do I care I got you now any how. If you was here

I would give you a hug and a big kiss.

I looked for you to night but didnt
see you, may be I will tomorrow.

I didnt have any news to tell you only some dilly dolly talk.

I forgot to give to bring you the names
last Sunday as I told you, so I will try to send them in with this.

With love and many kisses X X X X X X X X

I am

Your Johnny.
