Dear Mom Dad & all,

I hopped back from Algiers yesterday and found a letter from Mig waiting for me. The letter that told about the new puppies. I appreciated the news of the whereabouts of the family. Kinds speak out.

And thanks, too, for the anniversary present you sent to us. Eva Love wrote about it and also raved about the cake.

Yes, Mig, the bread is really that long. I watched a man taking some last night and then ate some water together with fried carrots and tomatoes, hot chili peppers, olives and onions. The bread here is eaten in chunks instead of slices.

Just came up from church so now I'm in tip-top shape mentally, physically and spiritually. Hope you are all fine.

Love,

Bob

P.S. Received a fine letter from Cousin Billie.
