Dear Mom Dad and all,

I have received two or three letters from you and one from Muz since I last wrote so it's about time, I know, even though there's nothing exciting happening I'm feeling fine but I'm plenty busy bickering out the feathers to all of the boys.

My captivity finally came through a few days ago after bouncing around since April. I certainly was slow in getting that one but maybe I can do better next time.

That was some news about Don planning to get married in December. Now you know I didn't give him the idea - the one who gave him the idea was that sweet little gal. But if he gets married he'd better not go on foreign service because it's plenty lonesome.

The poinsettias in our garden are beginning to bloom and I gave the gardener, Guiseppe, an old pair of shoes so he's happy as a lark. So and so.

Love,
Bob
