two mental cases. One other mental case left some time ago. I wrote Eva Love that I hoped she would tip me off when my letters indicated that I had had enough. Maybe you'll watch for signs too. But I'm not worried because I take it easy - too easy in fact. I'm just not the ambitious type and I suppose that's why I don't amount to much.

I mailed you another package yesterday. Just some more junk from the Isle of Capri. I couldn't find a salt and pepper set but I did find a salt shaker. One from the Isle of Capri should be fine for your collection, now. And a little vase for anyone and a little donkey for who is it that saves things like that?

Received an Easter Card from the Kumlanders, a letter from Uncle Bill and a book from the Central Baptist Sunday School. Please thank for me and extend my greetings.
P.S. Where are Dick + Don?

Love,
Bob
