Dear Mom, Dad + all,

Two letters from you this week toated my morale 200% to have a note to you ~~[illegible]~~ to have something to write about. Spring is likely in full at all but it makes me want to be home more than ever. I have a new assistant now, Lt. Jones, and I have hopes of having him learn the ropes so that I can by Dowing a going home deal. Don't see that it can't be for several months yet but when I left Eva here I said I'd be back in 1945 and it would make me most happy to not keep my word by coming back early.

So glad to hear from Jeanne with the good news about Alan. I bet she is good news of course. Even though he is out of the fight now he is probably safe and well cared for. From what I have seen and heard I have a high regard for the respect shown our boys while they are prisoners of the Germans.

After school is out and you get rested, Mom, I could use some cookies.

Love Bob
