Dear Mom Dad & all,

Nothing exciting to report but I thought I'd let you know, Dad, that I mailed you a couple of hot ties today. One from Naples and the other with the label in it from Rome. Of course they are the regular cheap Italian quality but if you have them pressed you may be able to wear them once or twice.

I checked a new dart game for the office today and Jones and Lobash are in a hot contest at the present time. Post of war, I guess.

A couple of days ago I received a book from June and her husband so if you see them please thank them from me. I'd like to see it. I'm still sweating out the cookies.

The apricots are ripe now and the peaches are well on the way. How's our crop of fruit doing. I walked through the King's garden last week & you ought to see it. He didn't stand short at all.

When am I comin' home?

Love
Bob
