Dear Mom, Dad + all,

I'm quite a happy little "soldier" with this supply of cookies, candy and pumpkin seeds. What a collection! The cookies are disappearing in a hurry and the pumpkin seeds were gone long ago.

Today is Sunday, but far from a holiday for me. I did take time out to go to church this morning at the community theater. This afternoon I have Sgt Rose and Corporal McCormick making up the gay rolls while I listen to the radio and write a few letters. No point in working when you don't have to.

This past week I hooked an electric frigidaire so I now have ice cold sodas and orange juice. The automatic cut off doesn't work on it so it's more like a solid cake of ice than a frigidaire, but who am I to complain?

Love to all,
Bob
