Dear Mom, Dad + all,

On Sunday evening I heard a beautiful symphony concert at the [redacted] Opera House. Barbicoll, from the States, was conducting so it was really a treat - especially with my box which belonged to a general who didn't show up.

Things are quiet. Sgt. Rose is in the hospital with sand flea fever, Sgt. Larrea is on detached service on the other side of the boat, Sgt Knight left for home and his field, and here I sit and wait for a break. Two years of overseas service on the 6th of this month. Oh me oh my! I'm happy, of course, but I could be happier.

Your letters have been so newsey and welcomed. So glad to see your additions, Dad, and glad to hear you are so much better. If you need anything (less than a million) let me know.

V-MAIL

Love
Bob
