Dear Mom, Dad + all,

We moved again - still in Italy but just a new spot and a new setting for an office. Now I'm living in a tent for a few days but I'm certainly enjoying it even though its quite a contrast to my last G.E. frigidaire equipped apartment. I have always enjoyed living in a tent. Of course its not as bad as it sounds because I have an eider down sleeping bag for a mattress and a table and bed. Nothing at all rough about it but what I enjoy is the sleep. I'll be getting fatter.

Received about a million letters today. One from Eva Lou, one from Jeanne, one from Wig and the others from Washington. I certainly appreciate the letters. Always so cheerful and full of news. Just wish I need to keep me going. But don't worry about me. I'm really pretty contented and in no danger at all.

Love
Bob
