Dear Mom, Dad & all -

Wish I had something exciting to write about, but no such luck. I life is smooth but lonesome, sea well but not too happy. I haven't had a cold in over a year now so I must be getting toughened in some respects. This week I brook for five hours in a cold rain - without a top on my jeep - and I haven't felt any ill effects yet.

My new office is really classy and helps my morale somewhat. Plenty of work in so all my men are kept busy and happy.

I wish I could think of something I need that you could send but I'm kept well supplied. Of course I would appreciate more mail. I haven't heard from you in a long while. A letter from Don last week and one from Mig a few days before that.

Love,

Bob
