Merry Christmas
Happy New Year

Dear Bud, please permit me and Mrs Wang to greet you and your family Merry Christmas

Thirty-five years of separation, but in Christ
we can meet daily and by the love of Jesus, we'll have the hope of together for ever.

Thank you for your valuable books. Both of them are very useful and in need of my work and study. You know those are very difficult to have one in China today. Give my thanks to Doris.
Who is Chen Jing Fang? Is he (or she) in China or America? I like to know him (or her).
please give my regards to him (or her).

I felt very regret that I missed Johnny when he visited Qingdao and our church. I was sick from March and in hospital for four months and half. Now I am well

Give thanks to our Almighty God, who blessed us through past years, Now we have chance to serve Him with full liberty to pray, singing and preach.

My family is well too. I have one son and two daughters, each of them has their child.

You have best wishes to give some helps to China. It is respectable. I have no ability to recommend a foreigner to do anything in China, except through diplomatic channels or your application to the foreign affairs.

It is not true that the Chinese are not permitted to associate with foreigners. The fact is we can write each other freely.

I am glad to hear that you have some Chinese friends. I don't know how far from your 93004 to 91010 or 90039. There has a Chinese friend Mrs. Cherry Y. K. Chang. She is my best elder sister and good teacher also co-worker in Christ. Dr. Y. K. Chang, as I have heard, is the founder of First Chinese Baptist Church in Los Angeles. I don't know is it the church you have attended last time? If so I like to recommend her to you and your family. Her address as follow.

Mrs. Cherry Y. K. Chang
2405 Lakeview ave Los Angeles Ca. 90039
or 2662 Bernardo Circle Duarte Ca 91010

Herewith my address in Chinese characters
please stick it one of them on your envelop
when you write back to me, that makes the Chinese post man can easily send it to me.

Best regards to Doris and your family
Same regards to Chen Jing Fang.

Yours in Christ
Stephen
