

Rev. Sanders Is Welcomed As New Calvary Baptist Pastor

7-11-43

The Rev. C. B. Sanders, new pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, and Mrs. Sanders were guests of honor at a reception last Thursday evening in the church auditorium. Members of the church, clergymen and friends attended.

William Bell, vice chairman of the church, was in charge of the reception program. Others from the church who took part were N. P. Severin, honorary vice chairman of the church; David Nord, chairman of the official board, and Eugene Anderson, Sunday school superintendent. The church choir under direction of Dr. Austin Abernathy rendered the special singing.

Clergymen who welcomed pastor and Mrs. Sanders to Evanston included the Rev. J. A. Swanson, pastor of the Grace Baptist church, Chicago, and a former pastor of Calvary Baptist church, representing the Ministerial Association of Chicago; the Rev. Oliver Powell, representing the Ministerial Association of Evanston; the Rev. F. V. Hedeem of the Emerald Avenue Baptist church, Chicago; the Rev. Eric Scherstrom of Sister Bay, Wis., where Pastor Sanders served the First Baptist church for five years; Dr. J. O. Backlund of Chicago, editor of the weekly paper, The Standard; Capt. Leslie Nelson of the Salvation army; the Rev. J. E. Dahlin, pastor of the Evangelical Free church; and Rev. E. C. Sandin of Chicago.

Mrs. Sanders was presented with a bouquet of red roses. Refreshments were served in the church parlors.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders live at 1431 Elmwood avenue. The new Calvary pastor came to Evanston from Joliet, where he was the pastor of the Bethel Baptist church for four years. He is a member of the trustee board of the General conference; vice chairman of the trustee board of the state; and secretary of the mission committee.

The Rev. Mr. Sanders will speak Sunday morning on the topic "What Will God Do?" His subject for Sunday evening will be "The Winning Life."
