

Calvary Baptist Observes 60th Anniversary; 4 Services Listed; Former Ministers to Preach

A special music service at 7:45 tonight (Thursday) at Calvary Baptist church will be part of a four-day observance of the church's sixtieth anniversary.

The anniversary observance will be concluded Sunday with a special program at the 11 a.m. service.

The Rev. Merritt Kline, former Calvary member, and the Rev. Lester Thompson, former minister, will be speakers for tonight's service. A fellowship banquet, sponsored by the Woman's Missionary society, will start tomorrow's festivities. The 6:30 p.m. banquet will be followed by an 8 p.m. service, with the Rev. Eric Scherstrom, another former minister, as speaker. Music will be provided by William Marshall, violinist from Northwestern, and Sanford Brandom, minister of music.

Yesterday's service featured music by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mann, and a talk by the Rev. C. B. Sanders, a former Calvary minister. The Rev. William Tapper of the general Baptist conference also spoke.

Program for Children's Day

A Children's day program at 10 a.m. Sunday will start off the celebration's last day. Music will be led by Mr. Brandom, and the Rev. Mr. Scherstrom will speak.

The Rev. Ragnar Arlander, former minister and mission secretary for the Swedish Baptist conference, will speak at the Historical hour at 4 p.m.

The 7:30 gospel hour will conclude the day's services, with an organ recital by Mr. Brandom, and music will be provided by the choir. The Rev. William Turnwall, now serving as secretary of home missions for the General Baptist conference, will preach the concluding sermon.

Calvary was established in May, 1886, when Evanston members of the First Swedish Baptist church of Chicago began an Evanston mission. Meetings were held in the North Evanston school building and in private homes, with the Rev. N. E. Nelson as the first minister. 6-6-46
