Sarah Skilling of Gurnee, Ill., and Darrin Peters of Houston were married July 22 in Gurnee Community Church in Gurnee, where the bride's parents were married. Brian Walter, associate pastor, officiated.

Parents of the bride are Anders and Brenda Skilling of Grayslake, Ill. Grandparents are Marie Skilling of Grayslake and the late Birger Skilling and the late Blaine and Angeline Miley.

Parents of the groom are Frank and Mary Kay Peters of Amarillo. Grandparents of the groom are Lester and Viola Wagner of Hereford and the late Joe and Leola Peters.

Maid of honor was Lauren Crokin, friend of the bride. Bridal attendants were Megan McClintock, sister of the groom; Katherine Kussmann; Jessica Germain; Julie DiLullo and Laura Olson, friends of the bride.

Best man was Lance McClintock, brother-in-law of the groom. Groom's attendants were Mark Skilling, brother of the bride; Mitch Wagner, cousin of the groom; Jamar Brown-King; and Chris Jones and Darrel Peebles, friends of the groom.

Ring bearer was Sam Peters, nephew of the groom. Flower girl was Caroline Peters, niece of the groom.

The bride wore an ivory lace-over-champagne gown with a crystal ribbon belt and an open back with buttons and a sweep train designed by Jim Hjelm. The bouquet by Petal Peddlers included miniature calla lillies, white orchids, vendela roses and hypericum berries. The color theme included plum, sage and ivory.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at White Deer Run Golf Club in Vernon Hills, Ill. The wedding cake was designed by Lovin' Oven Cakery.

The bride is a graduate of Warren Township High School and Illinois State University with a bachelor's degree in family and consumer science education.

The groom is a graduate of Trinity Fellowship Christian School and Baylor University with a bachelor's degree in business management. He is a veteran of the Navy.

Following the wedding, the couple honeymooned in Punta Cana, Dominican Republic, and held a reception in Amarillo on Aug. 4 at the home of Pat and Denise Brinkman, family friends of the Peters.

The couple resides in Houston.
