Marjorie Victoria Shea Obituary

Shea, Marjorie Victoria The beloved Marjorie (Nielsen) Shea entered into a greater glory October 28, 2012, following a series of illnesses. Her positive demeanor enabled her to navigate many difficult health issues courageously while her personal generosity remained ever constant which is her legacy. Born July 25, 1926, raised and spending her early adult life in the North Chicagoland area, she developed a career as an aficionado and couture of ladies garments at Sak's Fifth Avenue in Chicago. She then joined her husband, Charles H. Shea, in a family relocation to St. Louis, MO. Mr.

Shea, who preceded her in death in 1989, was then treasure of the Football Cardinals sports team that moved from Chicago to St. Louis. She was a treasured friend to many embracing all of the moments of her life's journey as well as each and every person along the way. Her presence will be missed and she has left an indelible mark on many lives. She is lovingly remembered and survived by two daughters, Patricia (Bill) Ehlers of Gold River, CA and Donna Johnson of Creve Couer, MO, three grandsons, Joshua B. (Rosemary) Ehlers of Gold River, CA, Thomas P. (Eliza) Vatterott Jr. of Manchester, MO, J. Blake (Katie) Johnson of Wildwood, MO, one great grandson, Luke W. Ehlers of Gold River, CA, a brother Donald (Pearl) Nielsen of Beach Park, IL, and Rosemary McCreight of San Diego, CA. A second brother, Richard Nielsen, an aviator was a casualty of WW II. Services: Memorial service at the SCHRADER Funeral Home and Crematory, 14960 Manchester Road at Holloway, Ballwin, Wednesday, 11:30 a.m. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the Salvation Army. Memorial visitation Wednesday 11:00 a.m. until the time of service. Friends may sign the family's on-line guestbook at Schrader.com.
