

June 28th 1938.

The Manager of the Central Bank of China,
Victoria Road,
T i e n t s i n .

Dear Sir:-

At February 3rd and March 2nd 1937 I deposited in the Central Bank of China (Tsingtao Branch) each of the said days $ 1,000.- ( In all two thousand dollars) for one year with 7 % interest, but before the year was ended the Bank in Tsingtao had closed and I have up to this day been unable to draw the money.

Now I beg to ask you if your Branch-Office at Tientsin could give me a draft for the same money payable by any Bank in Tsingtao, or, if that can't be done, ~~tell~~ tell me how I can get the money.

Thanking you in advance,

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours respectfully,

J. A. Rinell.
