

Correction

2. I had been in

I was in Sweden in 1933 at a time when Egon & Gerda were on furlough & ^{visited} ~~the~~ many of the relatives at that time.

I went again to Sweden in 1949 to attend the Convention held by the International Nurses ^{Association} of America.
The organization had not met during the Second World War except the Swedish Nurses worked
it. I had to make it a memorable occasion.

Members of

The royal family attended the opening to pay their regards to the attendees and the Swedish Orchestra played Beethoven's Ninth Symphony with a chorus singing the Ode to Joy. It was very impressive.

On that trip I was able to enjoy the ~~company~~ of several Swedish nurses as well as spending time with relatives.

~~Her mother had retired.~~

She traveled from Boston to N.Y. & sailed

On the Drottningholm, a ship house on which her uncle was chief engineer. As her mother had retired ~~to~~ the family including her mother, uncle & aunt visited their old home in the country as well as their ^{former} parish church, ~~which~~ in the early 14th century.