NEEDS TERMED VITAL TO SOLONS

BY LEE .

* Members of the general assembly should be acquainted with the problems of small business men and the needs of veterans, Edward Schnelidor, Republican for state in the 13th sen- district, pointed out to south- side audiences last week.

The legislature, Schneider de- clared, will play a major role In getting present veterans back on the job when the war is over. This, he explained, calls for experienced business men In the legislature who have an understanding of employ- ment problems.

Only Vet in Running.

If he is a war veteran, so much the better, Schneider asserted; add- Ing that he has not only a success- ful record as a real estate man but Is the only legislative candidate In the 13th district who Is a World War I. veteran. Ile Is a member of the Veteruans of Foreign Wrd anti the American Legion.

Schneider's running mate, Rep. Ragnar G. Nelson (R.), was born in Sweden in 1905, and was brought to the United States that same year. I-e is in the insurance business and was elected to the general assembly In 1942. I-le and Schneider face Rep. John G. Ryan and Adam Mioduski, Democratic nominees. Three will be elected.

* Swanson Stands on Record.

The 13th district Includes wards 7, 8, 9, and 10, and parts of wards 6, 17, and 19, and also that part of Calunaet township lying outside of Chicago.

Rep. David I. Swanson td.j, vet- eran house member from tile south- side s 11tfi senatorial district, has trotted out his past legislative record which, he asserted, contains plenty of reasons why he should be reelected Nov. '7.

Cites Need for Experience.

"I am running for reelection be- cause I like the job, I want to keep onl serving the Interests of my con- , and because I feel that in the trying years ahead the need for experienced legislators w I 11 be greater than ever before," Swanson nil audience last .

"After 20 years experience as a member of the house, my judgment Is that the legislature Is the. most Important branch of state govern- ment," said Swanson. " Not a single department of state government or subdivision can function without first obtaining authority from the legislature."

BE REGISTERED! POLLING PLACES OPEN TUESDAY

Republicans Active in South Area.

Your Last Chance

All polling places in Chicago and other Cook county townships will be open to register voters Tuesday until 8 p. m. This is the last chance to register for the general election Nov. 7.

Those who must register are new residents of the county, registered voters who have changed their names, those who will be 21 years old by Nov. 7, and who have not registered heretofore, and those who have registered in the county but who have moved from the jurisdiction of the election commissioners to that of the county clerk or vice versa. Any one not properly registered cannot vote Nov. 7. Election commission polling places will open at 8 a. m., the county clerk's at 6 a. m.

Organizations throughout the south side and suburbs Tuesday will wind up a drive for registrants that has been spearheaded by the live wire Bloom township Republican group under direction of David Dahl, committeeman, and Ray Schultz, executive vice president of the Southern Cook County Republican Club, Inc.

Precinct captains were schooled in the how's and whom's of registering at a recent meeting and last

BUSBY SEEMS CONGRESS SEAT AS FOE OF PAC

Kozicki Hits Dems' Polish Policy.

BY WILLIAM SHINNICK. Fred E. Busbey, Republican congressman from the 3d Illinois district who is No. 1 on the purge list of the CIO political action committee, declared in speeches made last week that good Americans in the CIO ranks would soon revolt against the communist minded PAC leadership and "drive the two by four dictators into the rubbish pile with Hitler."

"Americans whose sons and daughters are serving Hitler's might are not to be terrified by such party creatures as Sidney Hillman and Earl Browder the so-called," Busbey said.

He tops Purge List. Busbey earned the unrelenting enmity of the PAC heads when, as a member of the Dies committee, he took a leading part in the exposure of communist and fellow traveler activities all over the United States. His defeat has been listed as most on the purge list of the Hillman-Browder outfit and the local Democratic machine.

The revolt within the CIO is a forward step by labor, possibly the most important taken during the last year, Busbey said. He predicted that it would grow until there would be no question of every union man's right to vote as he pleases with no fear of retaliation by the communist overlords. Calls Contributions 'Tribute.' The congressman said that the week completed a survey of the status of prospective voters. Dahl reminded workers that the election was on Oct. 11. He said that he will be at the Illinois Central station in Chicago Heights tomorrow and Tuesday to remind commuters to register.

Offices Open Tomorrow.
County clerk voters can register tomorrow in County Clerk Flynn's office or with the board of election commissioners in the city hall. All Chicago wards and Chicago Heights, Harvey, and Evanston are under the election commissioners. Other south side suburban towns are under the county clerk's jurisdiction.

In briefing Bloom township workers before their final registration drive, Schultz reminded them that a vote not properly cast is counted as a vote. He called attention to the fact that most residents who have moved within the county believe erroneously that in instances filling a notice of transfer will make them eligible to vote. "This is not the case," he said. "When a person moves from the jurisdiction of the election commissioners to that of the county clerk or vice versa, he must register again."

Warns of Bloom Turn Confusion.
Schultz said there must be room for confusion in Bloom, the most townships because of the 25 precincts in Chicago Heights are administered by the township and the 10 precincts outside the city by the county clerk. Other townships which have precincts in South Chicago Heights, Glenwood, and parts of Hammond and Plume.

Bloom precinct workers were to turn in names of all expectant registrants last night to give Republican organization officials time to check the lists for completeness in the two days before local registration. Dahl, and other ward leaders will make the rounds of polling places Tuesday to remind clerks again to check new and old address in voter lists.

Cites 13 Transfer Cases.
Schultz said that a captain brought in 13 transfer notices in one day. Most in such instances the voters move had made registration necessary again.

One precinct captain in the township reported almost 100 per cent registration in his district. He had signed all but names on the rolls. Then, by scrutinizing all the possible sources of names of residents, he found 25 others unregistered. He expects to have the others by Tuesday. He reminded other workers that in-law, children just of age, and domestic servants often are overlooked in the campaign for registrants.

MOTHER ENLISTS TO PIN 7TH STAR IN SERVICE FLAG

Believes Life Easier Than at Home.

With a son, a daughter, and four sons-in-law in the army, Mrs. Helen DeMarzio, 43 1/2 W. 124th st., Chicago, has added a seventh star to her family's service flag by joining the women's army corps. She is training at Fort Des Moines, Ia.

Mrs. DeMarzio, who is in England with the army postal service, mother and daughter wanted to enlist together, but the mother was deemed to be a release from her civilian job. Pvt. Chigorza is the wife of Corp. Michael, who she married a few months prior to her enlistment. He is with the engineer corps at Camp Peck, La.

"Army life is soft in comparison with my civilian activities," says Pvt. DeMarzio, who supported five children, as she worked her way through teachers college.

Prior to her enlistment, Pvt. DeMarzio studied at the Art Institute where she taught night classes for foreign born at Englewood Evening school. In addition, she piled up 300 hours of OGD work as chairman of the defense program for her block community.

Her hobbies are art and gardening. She does paintings, pastels, and puffers, and particularly is proud of the roses she raised at home. She learned to operate a film because of her interest in comics and taught art work in her courses with deaf children. She has instructed at the Sheridan, Mitchell, Hill, and Parker deaf art centers.

"After I received my degree from Chicago Teachers college, I took an additional year's study in preparation for this work. It's the specialty that the army can use best, and my work will be with returned soldiers whose hearing has been lost or impaired."

The only one of her children will be at home in Gwendolyn, wife of Pvt. Harold Williams. Another daughter, Betty, is with her husband and small daughter at Camp Claiborne, Miss., where she married Lt. William House of the army air force, in rank and file, in opposing the Hill-man-communist group and following the traditional attitude of American "Millions for defense but not one cent for tribute."

"Today we have within our own borders an invidious effort to keep and abridge the right of millions of citizens to vote freely for candidates of their own choosing," Busbey declared. "Let no one be deceived by Sidney Hillman when he says that the PAC is merely to provide political education and no attempt is being made to 'impose our will on the local organizations of the union."

"Lamin, patron saint of Browder, men said a ratline book can be more powerful than the guillotine. He meant that control of the working man's bread and butter, of his livelihood, is the most effective instrument of dictatorship over the common people."

"The communitars will make every effort to make his plan desirable for any who defy the dictatorship. Disobedience may mean demotion, more laborious work, less pay or even the loss of a job. Already several CIO local union officials who will not go along with Hillman have been removed."

Busbey's opponent is Edward A. Kelly, a member of Mayor Kelly's organization. He was elected in congress in the 24 in 1930 and held the office until his defeat by Busbey in 1942.

In the 6th district, a cosmopolitan territory on the southwest side, the G. O. P. nominee is Leo J. Kozicki, an American Institute of Banking. Her husband, Pvt. William Kozicki, also is stationed at Chanute field. Upon completion of her training she will be assigned as a clerk in the supply division.

WANT TO VOTE?

As many South-side housewives go to the polls Nov. 7 their thoughts will be of the sons and husbands who are making their jungles in the South Pacific, fighting from foxholes or shell torn buildings in Europe, or flying over enemy territory seeking out bomb targets. And because of this they are prepared to vote for Rep. Fred E. Busby, 3d district Republican nominee for congress and World War I veteran.

The work he put on the so-called G. Bill of Rights marks him as a sincere service man at heart and a valuable man for post-war planning. Many Beverly Hills wives and mothers who have service flags hanging in their windows have agreed.

Mothers Turn to Politics.

Many housewives who in former years have left politics to the men in their households this year feel that the responsibility of the home vote is with them. One of these is Mrs. Vinton E. Mason, 10650 Seelye st., Chabraman and PTA member, who took it upon herself to mail 2,200 letters to club members on the southwest side.

Altho considering herself non-partisan in the past, Mrs. Mason wrote in the letter:

"My interest in Rep. Busby's reelection is not personal. It comes from knowledge of the outstanding Americanism which he has done over a long period of years under the auspices of the American Legion. More recently he has carried on this work as a member of the house special committee to investigate un-American activities."

Like many other mothers, she has a personal interest in the future of America for the younger generation. Her son, Charles Farnett Pierce, recently returned from 18 months of duty in the South Pacific and now is on duty in Asheville, N. C.

Two O'Connors Absent.

Irish humor is plentiful in the home of Dan O'Connor, 6325 S. Laffin st., but the family has its serious moments, too. Every Sunday for years Mrs. O'Connor hosted her flock of five children off to church at St. Brendan's, 6714 Racine av. Now on Sundays a prayer is said for the two absent members, 18 year old Daniel O'Connor, a corporal at Gardiner hospital, recovering from wounds received in France, and 21 year old Pvt. Martin J. O'Connor, stationed in India.

"Mrs. O'Connor said: 'Never has the future of America seemed so important to me. I know Rep. Busby is interested in the welfare of returning boys who must live in the future.'"

Mrs. Anthony Egan, 8239 Elizabeth st., hasn't had so much time to spend at her quilting frames since two daughters and a 2 year old granddaughter have returned home to live. It is a pretty big job to keep letters going to France, Atria, Texas, and Virginia, where her son-in-law, a son, and a brother are going to France, to write their break for boys.

"The boys didn't have a chance after the last war and I want to see our boys get a better break this time," Mrs. Egan asserted. "I was very pleased over the support Rep. Busby gave the G. I. bill."

Mrs. Marion Suthers, 11111 Hoggan av., is perhaps more politically minded than most housewives. President of the National Federation of Republican Women, she has endorsed Rep. Busby for reelection not only for his political record, but because of his record as a good neighbor and friend.

"If ever a man stood for old fashioned Americanism it's Fred Busby," she said. "My husband and I have associated with him in the Beverly Hills American Legion post and neighborhood get-togethers. His principles date back many years, before any thought of making him part of congress."

Son Follows Father.

Mrs. Suthers has a stake in the future, too. Her husband, Glenn, was a pilot in the last war and their son, Lt. William B. Suthers, stationed in Curlew, recently completed his 56th mission as a bomber pilot.

She is one of the founders of the Mothers' club of Morgan Park Military academy and believes she had the best time of her life while her son was a student there.

Mrs. Margaret White, 1716 W. 104th st., who has entertained more than 4,000 service men in two years, says that Rep. Busby is the first candidate for whom she would go out and ring door bells.

It's Venek's Second Home.

"My husband and I have known Rep. Busby as a neighbor for 20 years. He is straightforward, civic minded, and honest. He is just the man we want. I have never known him to be different."

Mrs. Chester Brower, 1706 Reverly Glen place, is a disabled veteran of last war, suffering from a heart condition developed while a nurse in North Carolina. Her interest in the future centers in an 18 year old son, Jack, attending a school for the merchant marine cadet corps at San Mateo, Cal., and a daughter, Mildred, 12.

"A man like Rep. Busby always

Emily Kalata, 6421 S. Artesian av., is one of the seniors at Aquinas Dominican High school who will model at the annual fall fashion review which will be held tomorrow evening in the school auditorium. The show is sponsored by the school Mothers' club.

Bride of Lieutenant

Phyllis Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Nelson, 7025 Dante av., is the bride of Lt. Ted S. Jameson of Paris, Tex. Jameson participated in the African campaign and the invasions of Sicily and Italy. He has returned to active duty in England.

has a reputation for being a hard worker and a man who has a deep understanding of the needs of the district, pointed out to South-side audiences last week.

The legislators, Schreiber declared, will place a major role in acting present veterans back on the job when the war is over. This is the reason, he said, that experienced business men in the legislature who have an understanding of employment problems.

Out Yet in Rowing.

If he is a war veteran, so much the better, Schreiber asserted, adding that he has not only a successful record as a real estate man but is the only legislative candidate in the 12th district who is a World War I veteran. He is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion.

Schreiber's running mate, Rep. Ragnar G. Nelson (R.), was born in Sweden in 1905, and was brought to the United States the same year. He is in the insurance business and was elected to the general assembly in 1942. He and Schreiber face Rep. John C. Row and claim Moderate and Democratic nominees. Three will be elected.

Swedish Slants on Record.

The 12th district includes wards 7, 8, 9, and 10, and parts of wards 6, 17, and 18, and also that part of Calumet township lying outside of Chicago.

Rep. David I. Swenson (R.), veteran house member from the southern side's 11th senatorial district, has trotted out his past legislative record which, he asserted, could be the trying years ahead the need for experienced legislators will be greater than ever before.

Cites Need for Experience.

"I am running for reelection because I like the job, I want to keep on serving the interests of my constituents, and because I feel that the trying years ahead the need for experienced legislators will be greater than ever before," Swenson informed an audience last week.

"After 20 years experience as a member of the house, my judgment is that the legislative is the most important branch of state government," said Swenson. "Not a single department of state government or subdivision can function without first obtaining authority from the legislature."

A board meeting of the Peck PTA will be held at 1 p. m. Wednesday in the school, 58th st. and Chicago business men and office workers who hope to elect Rep. Fred M. Gillies, plant superintendent of Inland Steel company and former All-American tackle at Cornell university, is the committee's chairman in the 3d district where Busby won by 5,981 in 1942. With Busby selected as the No. 1 foe by Sidney Hillman's political action committee, Gillies declared greater effort is needed in the district to reflect the Republican congress.

Harold R. Schradzky, attorney, is the committee's chairman in the 1st district. He nominated that a coalition of 1,372 votes would have meant a Republican victory in the 1942 election.

Work with Ward Groups.

"We are working hard and cooperating with the regular Republican ward organizations in each district," declared Henry Pope Jr., general chairman of the committee. "While we are concentrating on the election of congressmen in these five districts, we also are working for the election of other Republican candidates with the realization that what helps the Republican ticket as a whole will help each candidate, including the candidates for congress."

Wherever ward committees have requested aid, the committee plans to send men in to canvass the precinct, get voters registered, help get out the Republican vote and serve as watchers on election day. The committee's goal is 5,000 workers on election day. Men desiring to volunteer their services in precincts near their homes should go to committee headquarters, 53 W. Jackson Blvd., or telephone Harrison 6515.

ALPAGORA

THE COAT WITH THE DOUBLE-DENSE* FABRIC

It's the double-dense* fabric that does it! Alpagona Coats are tailored of an exclusive fleece that has millions of wool fibres on its surface. In fact, twice as many as you find in ordinary coats. That's what gives Alpagona its soft, downy luxuriousness and, at the same time, lengthens its life. Warm as toast, and almost weightless, too! No wonder Alpagona is America's favorite coat!
