

REV. G. ARVID HAGSTROM
1291 FOLSOM STREET
SAINT PAUL 3, MINNESOTA

Mr. "Bud" Holmquist
Wheaton College,
Wheaton Ill.

My dear "Bud." I have received and read your letter of July 10 and enjoyed receiving it and reading it more that I can tell you. After I have read it I handed it to Dean Carlson of our College so as to apprise him of its contents.
He had also read it, and returned it to me and says he hopes to be benefited by this little lead. I do not know that I am in much of a position to do much more by it but enjoy it just the same. Thank you again and all the ways in which you make it pleasant for me. I remember well the good times we often had together.
I appreciate all you did and would enjoy hearing from you as often as you can find time to write even if I do not feel able to write often in return or well. I am feeling quite well these days but get tired very easily and often. Even writing such we tend so I often try and get Ebba to do it for me, and though she is pressed for work she helps me out often. I hoped your stay and study at Wheaton will profit you a good deal. We had a memorial service for Dr. J. Larson at a combined Chapel at school today. It was crowded and very impressive. He left us very suddenly.

His whole family were present at the service.

Mrs. Hapton joins me in kindest greetings to you all. I hope your mother is well by this time. We had a half hope of seeing you last Sunday forenoon at the Emerald Ave service, but suppose you could not come, school having started up. We are all quite well. We reached home from Chicago last night in time for supper after leaving Chicago at 7:30 a.m. We leave tomorrow a.m. for Lake Sibyl for two weeks for a short rest. Miss Ida Thornhill goes with us.
Cordial greetings to you all. Yours in Him, Gardner Hapton
