

Jan 10 - 48
4:15 P.M.

Hello Sweetheart,

I am supposed to be listening to the professor in my ancient philology class. But Al brother wrote to you. He had one just lead in paper in class.

Arrived in Houston at 12:15 last night & hit the sack at about 1:00 A.M. Bob didn't arrive till sometime later. I set the alarm for 6:00 this morning; but the stupid thing went off at 5:30. So I went to sleep for another half hour. Was able to get all my German done this morning before class. Lucky me.

Darling, you are a bad influence for me. All day I have been day-dreaming about you. Just can't get you out of my mind (Must be love!). Believe me, I would give anything to be able to go home tonight.

Guess I'd better start paying attention to what is said.
One more thing, Honey; there is no doubt but that I am deeply in love with you. You mean more to me than life itself.
I only hope you share the same feeling for me. And I hope I can make you a good husband.

My deepest love,

Bernie xxoo's

P.S. you're just a little dinky!