Hello Sweetheart,

This afternoon I have been trying to catch upon some of my reading. Some of the books before me might now be ancient philosophy, "Critique of Pure Reason" by Kant, life & writings of Augustine, & the history of Day etiology. Sounds interesting, doesn't it? - ? just now "Plato" is trying his best to put me to sleep (doing a good job too).

No letter either yesterday nor today, Honey. Certainly hope that you've one shell. I must have a letter by tomorrow. Hope so!

Have you ever heard of Bishop Houghton, head of the China Inland Mission? Well, he was on campus all day yesterday & I was privileged to hear him speak twice. Certainly is a fine man of God. He didn't know your father, but he had heard of him. One of the men with him had lived in London for five years & knew Sir Lubbock deal well.

A friend from G. F. C., Rev.
Bob Cross, returned from Europe recently & spent Chapel today.
He was all over Europe & helped establish Youth for Christ in Rome, Italy. He has established a Bible School in France.

Nothing, or much as I'd like to write home, there is nothing else to say. As soon as a letter is received, I'll write again.

Oh yes, I've found a job for Christmas holidays.
I expect to work for the post office.
My cash (money) is just about gone now after having to pay for your passage. If we are to get married, I must get some money somehow. So must work during Christmas vacation. We won't be able to be together so much now, but it can't be helped. And, when I get home from work, I'll have to do housework. But don't worry, I'll get on a whole anyway. Must close. I love you.

Your fiance,
