Pheasant College

Hi Sugar,

Looked in my mail - but today & there was a letter from you. Surprised me!

I came out to Pheasant last night. Rusty, from, drove me out. Rusty, from, Jimmy, La Ferre, Elmer & Auld, Eugene, Phyllis, Arlene, Al, Joan, & Ray were over yesterday to celebrate my aunt's birthday. So Rusty decided to take me to school last night.

Darling, I believe you forgot to tell me the name of your ship. Is this how you spell it: MAURITANIA?

Remember, if you don't arrive on time, there is no reason for you to come because you will have to go back. Street Master, the man at the immigration office said you have until Dec. 31st to get here.

Isn't that wonderful? BUT, YOU HAVE TO BE HERE BY THEN.
The dark shade is over so the ship can come into New York harbor. I'll have June + Paul buy your train ticket.

Darling, I hope you understand this. I am trying to idelize the amount of V money at cost to get you here. So will you just every penny you have spent & tell me what it was spent for? This is very important.
You borrowed pr. 1000 + I sent you $50.00. Tell me everything spent.

If, when you get to the States you need more money, please telegraph for some.

No, I have not sent Hanson the money. Why do you worry about it? Don't you trust me?
Supposing, Sweetheart, you cannot get passage in time.
How quick I get my money back then? I wrote to Hanson & they know I intend to pay them. I don't believe in being in debt, nor do I intend to pay out money before it is wise to. Mrs. Anderson does not need money before she gets to the States. If you get a boat on time, I must send the money. If not, you must have to return whatever the Lines return.

I am unable to pay the difference & I don't know, if you can't get here before DEC. 31, DON'T COME!
Time to close chapel.

all my love,

Bernie
