

Our host in Qingdao was Pastor Gao Yongliang and Liu Bojuen was our able guide. He and Rosalind from Malaysia got married on October 20th. We were especially happy to visit Zhucheng for the first time in many years!

Coming home we found our families well and happy. We will have to take up making jiaozi (dumplings) again now.

Thank you for all that we shared in 2012!

Wishing you blessings and peace for the New Year!

Love, Alice/Lally

From right to left:
Margareta, my sister,
Olivia, my granddaughter,
Ellen Rinell, my brother's granddaughter,
and me in Uppsala, Sweden, making jiaozi

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to Family and Friends everywhere!

The year of 2012 has included a journey to China, so I'm sharing some photos with you - most of them taken by my sister! We, a group of 17 Swedes, had a wonderful time, meeting old friends and making new ones. We visited eight churches, but pictures from St. Michaels in Qingdao and Chong Men Wai Church in Peking are not included in this brief letter.

Our schedule was adjusted to the date for the uncovering of a statue of Wang Huating. He was principal of the Ruei Hua Middle School in Jiaozhou 1930-1949. Rev. Yin Ying, Wang's former student who now lives in San Francisco, took the initiative for this!

Gaomi Church built 2011      Zhucheng Church built 2007

Jiaonan Mountain Church      Jiaozhou Church built 1990

Xiajiahe Church in Laoshan – Home church of Pastor Gao      Qingdao Church built 1910 by German Lutherans

Uncovering statue of Wang Huating, 9/26 2012 Rev. Yin Ying, SF, USA

Church Leaders in Zhucheng

People with memories..

Ms Li and Liu grew up at the Mission Orphanage, Zhucheng

Some students at the Bible School in Gaomi